LAW MAKERS WORRIED BY A DETECTIVE

Who Refuses to State His Business About The State Capitol

DEATON HAS REFUSED TO WITHDRAW HIS CHARGES

OF SHAMEFUL CONDUCT

On the Part of Legislators at Wine Supper Given By Lobbyists, But Says He Did Not Mean Finance Committee—Republican Senators Puzzled By the Liquor Question.

(Associated Press Telegram) Columbus, March 18.—While house leaders today were making strenuous efforts to prevent an investigation of charges of alleged improper activity of lobbyists, legislators became concerned over the presence of a representative from a prominent detective agency. The detective is one of the men who worked on the Los Angeles dynamiting cases several years ago. He refused to discuss his business or to admit that he was interested in any legislative activities. Members of the house expressed the opinion that his presence was not significant.

House leaders today went to Representative Deaton of Miami county, whose statements stirred the discussion of a lobby investigation originally, and insisted that he make a public statement, giving his reasons for suggesting an inquiry. He told them he would be willing to state openly that he was falsely quoted concerning a charge that legislators made an improper excursion with a lobbyist in Cleveland a week ago. He declared he never charged the committee with that.

Representative Deaton refused to withdraw his suggestion that the legislature should investigate reports of alleged wine suppers conducted by lobbyists for legislators, however. He promised to produce persons who could give definite testimony concerning what he declared was "shameful association" on the part of legislators.

House leaders secured from Representative Reighard, chairman of the finance committee, tentative promise not to submit his resolution at once demanding an investigation for the sake of clearing his committee of "certain charges." He announced before recess of the house last evening he would introduce this resolution today.

Druggists' leaders, including Christian Science practitioners, could be licensed to practice legally under the state medical board, according to a bill ready for introduction by Representative Ellis of Geauga. The bill will be proposed a substitute for the Platt bill, for licensing of chiropractors; the Knox bill, for licensing naturopaths, and the Terrell bill, which would legalize the work of Christian Science practitioners.

Representative Ellis' bill would compel all druggists to pass an examination in such subjects as physiology, anatomy, chemistry and bacteriology, under an examining committee, consisting of the state medical board, and one representative of each cult of healers. The bill prescribes the nature of the examination. Representative Ellis declared many healers will oppose the bill because they are not equipped with the knowledge necessary to pass the test.

Republican senators today were puzzled over the liquor question, precipitated by the reporting out yesterday of the McDermott license decentralizing bill from the temperance committee. They held a secret caucus for several hours today, to discuss what their attitude shall be. It (Continued on Page 11, Col. 5.)

American Killed In Mexico By the Followers of Zapata

This is a photograph of J. B. McManus, formerly of Chicago, who was killed Thursday, March 11, in Mexico City by the adherents of Zapata, the bandit, who are now in possession of the capital. President Wilson, through the agents of the State Department now in Mexico, is trying to learn the details of the murder of the American.

Mr. McManus was financial agent for Bryant, McIlhenny & Co., a big firm which manages a large group of mines in the Guanajuato district. He has been in business in Mexico City for about fifteen years and was a leader of affairs of the American colony.

TRANSPORTS

WILL BE USED TO CARRY COMMERCE FROM THE PHILIPPINE ISLANDS.

Lack of Shipping Facilities Makes Such a Step Necessary, in Opinion of Officials.

(Associated Press Telegram) Washington, March 18.—Because of the lack of shipping facilities between the Philippine Islands and the United States, army transports will be utilized for carrying goods from the islands, which it is not believed can be transported in any other way. Secretary Garrison today called President Wilson's attention to reports from Governor-General Harrison on the "unfortunate condition" in the Philippines because of lack of ships for exports to the United States. At first it was suggested that naval colliers returning from the islands be used, but Secretary Daniels was advised that was not authorized by law. Secretary Garrison found, however, that there could be no objection to using returning army transports, provided their freight is first made over to the island government.

The quartermaster-general of the army has found that about 3000 tons space will be available on each ship. Secretary Garrison will instruct Governor-General Harrison to invite proposals from shipping companies to carry all exports offered to the government which could be handled by private shipping.

President Wilson has approved Secretary Garrison's plan and it will shortly be put in effect.

MAYOR "FIRED" POLICE FORCE; HOME WRECKED

(Associated Press Telegram) New York, March 18.—The home of Mayor Daniel Hermann of Guttenburg, N. J., a suburb, was wrecked early today by the explosion of a bomb. A hole was torn in the wall of the house, windows were broken and the entire community was awakened. No one was injured.

Mayor Hermann discharged the Guttenburg police force of eight men sixteen months ago, on the ground that the town was so orderly no police were needed. The police took the matter to the courts, where it is now pending. When the bomb exploded this morning, the police were holding their annual ball.

Asleep in the mayor's home at the time of the explosion were the mayor, his three brothers and his mother. The Guttenburg police, although officially discharged, are investigating. The bomb thrower escaped.

Two arrests have been made. fired from inside the station. An unfinished report on his desk indicated that the shooting occurred between 1 and 2 o'clock in the morning. Hotating was 24 years old. Three years ago his cousin of the same name, was murdered under similar circumstances in the railroad station at Tappan.

PROTEST OF GERMANY TO DEPARTMENT

Embassy Claims Violation Of Treaty Provisions, At Seattle, Wash.

WHEN LOCAL AUTHORITIES ARRESTED CONSUL

WILL INVESTIGATE CASE

The Convention That Covers the Point Sets Out That Under No Circumstances Shall a Consulate Be Invaded Except In Pursuit of Fugitive Who Had Committed a Crime.

(Associated Press Telegram) Washington, March 18.—The German embassy today protested to the state department against the warrant of arrest served on the German consul, William Muller, and his assistant, B. M. Schultz, at Seattle, Wash. The embassy contends that the arrest is a violation of the consular treaty between Germany and the United States.

The department was asked to investigate the case and the embassy was assured that would be done immediately. The charge was made in the embassy's note that the Seattle authorities had exceeded their powers in entering the consulate to make search and also in serving the warrants of arrest on Muller and his assistant.

The consul in his report to the embassy, which was transmitted to the state department, did not say that an actual search of the consulate had been made, but declared that officers "had entered in order to make a search."

The charge on which the consul's arrest was based was that of conspiracy, in that he had been unlawfully trying to gain secrets of the Seattle Construction and Drydock company. It had been said the company was building submarines for Great Britain and sending them to British Columbia in parts.

The section of the consular treaty which the embassy contends has been violated, declares that consuls "shall enjoy in the country of their residence, personal immunity from arrest or imprisonment except in the case of crime." Another section of the treaty declares that "the consular archives shall be at all times inviolable and under no pretense whatever shall the local authorities be allowed to examine or seize the papers forming part of them. The offices and dwellings of consuls missions who are not citizens of the country of their residence shall be at all times inviolable."

"The local authorities," the treaty continues, "shall not, except in the case of the pursuit for crimes, under any pretext invade them." Embassy officials expressed their belief in Muller's innocence of any conspiracy to obtain secrets to which he had no right. "The department of justice probably will make an investigation for the state department."

RECEIVING TELLER COMMITS SUICIDE

(Associated Press Telegram) Cleveland, O., March 18.—B. O. Hill of Pittsburg, receiving teller in the Cleveland Federal Reserve bank, shot and killed himself in a room on the seventh floor of the Williamson building this morning. The bank is located in the Williamson building. Hill's parents live at Bellevue, Pa. Hill's act was brought about by a combination of ill health and home sickness. D. C. Willis, government agent at the bank, declared "Hill's accounts were strictly O. K."

Latest Picture of Mme. Bernhardt, Who Sends Word She Will Act Here Despite Loss of Leg

This is the latest photograph of Mme. Bernhardt who is recovering from the operation in which she suffered the loss of a leg. It is one of the few photographs which really show the age of the great actress. Most of those published of her show her to be a young woman of thirty. Here she is seen as she is today. Despite the loss of her leg Mme. Bernhardt has sent word to the United States that she will come here to act. She will not give up her stage career because she is more than seventy years of age and has lost a leg.

Attempt to Prove Horn's Act Of Blowing Up International Bridge an Act of War, Failed

(Associated Press Telegram) Bangor, Maine, March 18.—The effort of counsel for Werner Horn to have the charge of illegal transportation of explosives dismissed, on the ground that his attempt to blow up the railroad bridge at Vanceboro was an affair of international relation and outside the jurisdiction of the federal court, failed at the preliminary hearing before United States Commissioner Charles H. Reid today. The motion to release the prisoner led to many wordy encounters between the attorneys representing the government and Horn's counsel. Commissioner Reid declined to allow the defense to present evidence under its motion to dismiss, and ordered the hearing to proceed on a plea of not guilty, entered formally by the defense. The defense having refused to plead.

DECISIONS

OF COURT OF APPEALS IN A NUMBER OF IMPORTANT CASES ANNOUNCED.

C. O. Burke's Appeal Was Dismissed. Jurists Made Good Record of Work Done.

The court of appeals for the March term announced decisions in cases submitted as follows:

Howard Ramey et al. vs. Otto G. Runnels et al. A decree was entered for plaintiff as prayed for in the petition. The suit was brought for an injunction and came into the court of appeals on appeal from the judgment and decision of the court of common pleas. The plaintiff asked for an order restraining the construction of an embankment where by drainage water is precipitated over plaintiff's land in Liberty township. The court ordered the injunction heretofore allowed made perpetual.

Fruit Dispatch Co. vs. T. Lacey. A suit growing out of the sale of a carload of bananas. Judgment of common pleas, which was in favor of Lacey, reversed, and cause remanded for a new trial.

Frank J. Reese vs. D. E. Chism. A suit to determine the proper line between premises of the parties. Decree for plaintiff.

City of Newark vs. Chas. Leedale. A suit to restrain the interference with an alley. Motion to dismiss appeal overruled. Petition dismissed. Leave to file amended petition refused.

Mutual Benefit Department of Order of Railway Conductors vs. Mary I. Bland et al. Decision held under advisement.

Edward M. Barrett vs. Ella J. Bland, Petition in error dismissed.

J. W. Horner, administrator, etc., vs. James H. Kirkpatrick. Decree for plaintiff. Remanded to common pleas. A suit to determine the ownership of several shares of national bank stock.

Anna Detz vs. Walter C. Detz. An alimony proceeding; judgment of common pleas court affirmed.

Baird vs. Jewett Car Co. A suit to declare a trust in certain real estate in this city. Decision held: the court will pass upon the case hereafter.

Adolph Heck vs. Howard Pyle. A suit growing out of the sale of a carload of bananas. Judgment of common pleas, which was in favor of Lacey, reversed, and cause remanded for a new trial.

SCHOOL CHILDREN SHOULD BE MADE SELF SUPPORTING.

(Associated Press Telegram) New York, March 18.—P. P. Claxton, United States Commissioner of education advocated making the children of the public schools self supporting, in an address which he delivered before the National Plant, Flower and Fruit Guild here yesterday.

"This work you are doing in encouraging each child to have his little garden plot is valuable. Gardening teaches a child more practical knowledge than any amount of dry text books; it keeps him out in the open air and it can easily be made remunerative."

DEMANDS

OF JAPAN WOULD SERIOUSLY IMPAIR CHINA'S INDEPENDENCE IF GRANTED.

And Place Entire Provisions Under And Place Entire Provisions Under Tutelage of Japan, Opinion of

(Associated Press Telegram) London, March 18.—The Manchester Guardian today reviews the recent political developments between Japan and China and publishes what is described as a complete list of Japan's demands concerning which it says, editorially, that the general effect thereof would be seriously to impair the independence of China and place entire provinces under the tutelage of Japan.

A comparison is then made between the Japanese demands, as sent out by newspaper correspondents at Peking, and as published by Japan. "It will immediately be apparent from this comparison," the paper continues, "that not only have many of the most important demands been omitted from the list as supplied to the powers interested, but others had been so modified as to disguise their real character. Thus Japan did not indicate that while she insisted China should agree not to alienate any portion of her coast line or any islands off her coast to a third power, she retained the right to demand herself the lease or cession of such territory. Neither did Japan let it be known that she demanded exclusive mining rights in the Yangtze basin, and that she be allowed to construct railroads which would seriously affect British interest in that region."

A dispatch from Peking yesterday set forth that the allies had warned Japan against pressing her Chinese demands and that Washington had told Tokyo that certain of the requirements upon China violated existing American treaties with that republic. The views of the allies were presented by the British and Russian ambassadors at Tokyo, who advised the foreign office that Japan confine herself to her first requests upon China as otherwise it would be difficult for Japan's allies to negotiate diplomatically with her in the future.

UNITED STATES ACTION INDEPENDENT OF ANY OTHER GREAT POWER

(Associated Press Telegram) Washington, March 18.—It was stated officially at the White House today that representations by the United States to Japan concerning the latter's demands on China, had been entirely independent of any action by Great Britain and Russia or other powers.

Further than this statement, officials in all quarters preserved the strictest silence regarding the situation as one of delicacy. State department officials, however, have admitted that since the beginning of negotiations between Japan and China, over the former's demands for commercial concessions, the United States has been endeavoring to influence Japan to ameliorate her demands and to prevent any infringement of the rights of the United States.

None of the steps in the representations, which have been made to the Japan ambassador here, as well as to Tokyo and Peking have been made public.

PREZMYSL'S OUT-WORKS ARE FALLEN

Russians Take Position Before Austrian Relief Is Able to Reach Them

REPORT IS NOT CONFIRMED, BUT PROBABLE.

GREAT BRITISH VICTORY

At Neuve Chapelle is Just Beginning to Reveal Itself In Its True Importance—Transfer of German Troops to the West Precluded by the Situation in Poland.

(Associated Press Telegram) London, March 18.—The outer forts of Przemyśl toward which a part of the Austrian army had been struggling in an effort to bring about the relief of the besieged garrison, have at last fallen before the Russians, according to unofficial reports reaching London.

Although confirmation is quite lacking, British newspapers this morning apparently are eager to regard the report as not improbable. They refer to the fact that news dispatches received from Petrograd yesterday said the surrender of this stronghold was but a matter of a few days.

True or untrue this is about the only overnight news from the eastern front, although there has been much speculation concerning the engagement reported on the northern frontier of East Prussia and referred to in wireless messages from Berlin as "weak Russian attacks on Taurigen and Langsaren."

Langsaren is just within the borders of East Prussia, not far from the important German fortress of Tilsit and the presence of Russian troops at this point may mean a new invasion of German territory.

Nowhere in the eastern arena of the fighting, according to the opinions of British observers do the Austro-German forces appear to be making progress except Stanislaw and Kolomea to the north of Bukovina, where they are pushing forward in an attempt to turn the Russian left flank.

British military experts think that the position of the German armies in the East precludes the transfer at this time of any troops to the western arena and that the German plan, of dealing Russia a crushing blow before attempting the much-discussed spring advance in the west, has failed. Five out of six of the new German army corps are said to be engaged on and beyond the frontier of East Prussia, a fact which British observers think will make it difficult for Germany to meet the demands likely to be imposed on her in the west.

The full import of the British victory at Neuve Chapelle is only now beginning to be grasped by the public. It has greatly cheered both troops and civilians as confirming the belief that the German line can be broken if the allies care to pay the price. Several thousand wounded men from this battlefield already have arrived in England, five trainloads having reached Brighton during the 24 hours ended last evening.

The press today again cautions the people that the taking of the Dardanelles is likely to be a slow affair to accomplish which the allies must pay the price just as they have done at Neuve Chapelle.

ALLIES SUSPEND THE BOMBARDMENT FOR SHORT TIME

Highwaymen Killed Operator, Cut Another's Throat and Escaped With a Small Sum

(Associated Press Telegram) Highland Falls, N. Y., March 18.—Highwaymen operating during the night along the West Shore railroad, held up one man, robbed him and cut his throat and later entered the railroad station here, shot and killed the night telegraph operator and escaped with a small sum.

George Griffen, whose throat was cut, is in a serious condition. The body of the murdered operator, Omar Hotating, was found near his telegraph key, with five bullets in his body. Apparently his assailants had

Weil Testifies That Governor of West Virginia Was Determined to Have the Gas Rates Reduced Regardless of the Evidence Before Commission

(Associated Press Telegram) Wheeling, W. Va., March 18.—A. Leo Weil, chief counsel for the Manufacturers Light and Heat company, today addressed the federal master J. W. Vandervoort, when the hearing of the company's appeal from decision of the public service commissioners decision, reducing gas rates, was resumed. Mr. Weil objected to newspaper comment on the case and read at length from today's issue of a Wheeling paper an account of the hearing which he characterized as untrue. He also read parts of news stories in which he said Governor Hatfield made statements for the purpose of stirring "this case pending in this court."

Mr. Weil said he and his associates had not had time to confer as to the proceedings they had a right to take, but it had held that comment which prejudiced a case, or suggests a conclusion which should be reached on the merits of the case, is a contempt and can be punished. Mr. Weil's statement and the newspaper story were put into the record as part of a proceeding, independent of the gas company's case, which he said it expected would be entered for contempt of the federal court.

Mr. Weil resumed the witness stand to continue his testimony begun yesterday. He quoted Commissioner Ogden on the alleged interference of the governor with the work of the commission, saying that at a hearing of the gas company before the commissioners in Wheeling, Commissioner Ogden "told me he was having difficulty with the gas company case because the governor was determined to lower rates regardless of what the evidence would be and that the other commissioners would do what the governor ordered."

"I asked Ogden," said Mr. Weil, "where he stood and he replied, 'The governor can't control me.' The witness continuing said at Charleston Mr. Ogden told him the governor had ordered the commission to hold all hearings at Charleston and had taken charge of the whole proceedings. 'We have to do as he says. I can't do anything. If I stand out against him, I'll get fired. We are holding office practically at his will.' Mr. Weil testified Commissioner Ogden said to him.

(Associated Press Telegram) Paris, March 18.—The correspondent at Athens of the Havas Agency in a dispatch dated March 17, says the naval operations of the allies at Smyrna, Asiatic Turkey, have been temporarily suspended and the Turks are profiting by this respite to repair the damage to their batteries and forts. They are pursuing the same course also at the Dardanelles and on either shore of the Sea of Marmara.

There are about 180,000 Turkish troops west of Constantinople, according to the latest information, reaching Athens, the correspondent continues. Forty thousand men are on the Gallipoli Peninsula, 30,000 are in European Turkey and the rest are on the Asiatic side of the Dardanelles.

It is reported here that the Turks are placing guns on the principal heights surrounding Constantinople on both the European and Asiatic side of the Bosphorus.

LIFE INSURANCE COMPANIES

They Are Closely Observing Public Health Condition

An examining physician for one of the prominent life insurance companies, in an interview on the subject, made the astonishing statement that one reason why so many applicants for insurance are rejected is because kidney trouble is so common to the American people, and the large majority of those whose applications are declined do not even suspect that they have the disease.

According to this it would seem that a medicine for the kidneys, possessing real healing and curative properties, would be a blessing to thousands.

Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y., who prepared Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, the well known kidney, liver and bladder remedy, claim that judging from evidence received from druggists everywhere, who are constantly in touch with their customers, and also indisputable proof in the form of grateful testimonial letters from thousands of reliable citizens, this preparation is remarkably successful in sickness caused by kidney and bladder troubles. Every interesting statement they receive regarding Swamp-Root is investigated and no testimonial is published unless the party who sends it is reported of good character. They have on file many sworn statements of recoveries in the most distressing cases. They state that Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root is mild and gentle in its action and its healing influence is soon noticed in most cases. Swamp-Root is purely an herbal compound and Dr. Kilmer & Co. advise all readers who feel in need of such a remedy to give it a trial. It is on sale at all drug stores in bottles of two sizes—50c and $1.00. However, if you wish first to test this great preparation send ten cents to Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y., for a sample bottle. When writing be sure and mention the Newark Daily Advocate.

THE HOME BUILDING ASSOCIATION COMPANY OF NEWARK, OHIO

Court House Park to Be Beautified; Council And Commissioners Will Act

The court house park, which has long been regarded as one of the prettiest in the state, must receive some attention from council after many years of neglect. A committee consisting of Messrs. Adams, Payne and Ashbrook will confer with the county commissioners with a view of determining what shall be done and how the expense can be divided. It was the unanimous opinion of councilmen that the lawn should be given special treatment and it was also suggested that shrubbery and possibly a hedge surrounding the entire park, be provided.

It developed in the discussion which preceded Wednesday night's action, that the same question came up when the council was considering the semi-annual appropriation ordinance in January. At that time Councilman Knauber and others urged that the park be given some consideration when a member, whose name was not mentioned said "to h— with the park. We want money for the streets."

No sentiment of this character was expressed Wednesday night. In fact, most of the members of council spoke strongly in favor of the improvement of the park.

Councilman Knauber also took occasion to address council on the question of future street improvements. He urged that the members seriously consider the advisability of constructing all paving with a five-inch concrete foundation; that no street paving be put down until all sewers, water and gas mains were installed, all house connections made and then refuse permission to tear up the street for any purpose for a period of ten years and then only upon the deposit of a sufficient guarantee that the pavement would be restored to its original condition.

Mr. Knauber stated that he had asked City Engineer Wells to give council an estimate of the difference of cost of the present style of pavement and that with concrete foundation. He read the estimate of the engineer, which was as follows:

"At your request I have made an estimate of the difference in the price per foot front of a brick pavement for a 25-foot roadway with 6 in. gravel foundation and with concrete foundation of different depths.

"Following is my estimate of cost: (1) If the concrete cost $3 per cubic yard (they make it in Milwaukee, Wis., at $2.85 per cu. yd.) with a 6-in. foundation the cost per foot front will be 69c extra; with a 5-in. foundation the cost per foot front will be 55c extra; with a 4-in. foundation the cost per foot front will be 44c extra.

"(2) If the concrete cost $4.00 per cubic yard, with a 6-in. foundation the cost per foot front will be 92c extra; with a 5-in. foundation the cost per foot front will be 77c extra; with a 4-in. foundation the cost per foot front will be 62c extra.

"(3) The bids for 5-in. concrete foundation received during 1914 were from 30c to 50c more than for gravel foundation, at 30c the pavement would cost 42c extra per foot front, and at 50c it would cost 70c extra per foot front.

"I believe that a 5-in. foundation is the proper depth for a residence street, and that 55c extra per foot front is a fair estimate of the cost. This would make the extra cost to a 40-ft. lot $22, which, I believe, would be money well spent.

"In regard to the extra cost of cement grout filler over sand filler for a 25-ft. roadway, if the cement filler costs 10c more than sand filler it will cost approximately 14 cents per foot front or $5.60 extra for a 40-ft. lot."

Just before the meeting closed there was an interesting discussion among members regarding the custody of the city's streets, whether council or the service director was in control.

Previous councils have been governed by an opinion of the city solicitor to the effect that council has nothing to do with streets except to enact legislation for paving, sewers or sidewalks. Members have understood for several years that the service director was a czar in this respect. Solicitor Norpell Wednesday night read a section of the statute showing that council had absolute control of the streets.

The discussion was brought about

How To Get Rid of a Bad Cough

A Home-Made Remedy that Will Do It Quickly, Cheap and Easily Made

If you have a bad cough or chest cold which refuses to yield to ordinary remedies, get from any druggist 2½ ounces of Pinex (50 cents) and mix with a pint bottle and fill the bottle with plain granulated sugar syrup. Start taking a teaspoonful every hour or two. In 24 hours your cough will be conquered or, very nearly so. Even whooping cough is greatly relieved in this way.

The above mixture makes a full pint—a family supply—of the finest cough syrup that money could buy—at a cost of only 54 cents. Easily prepared in 5 minutes. Full directions with Pinex.

This Pinex and Sugar Syrup preparation takes right hold of a cough and gives almost immediate relief. It loosens the dry, hoarse or tight cough in a way that is really remarkable. Also quickly breaks the inflamed membrane which accompanies a painful cough, and stops the formation of phlegm in the throat and bronchial tubes, thus ending the persistent loose cough. Excellent for bronchitis, spasmodic croup and whooping cough. Keeps perfectly and tastes good—children like it.

Pinex is a special and highly concentrated compound of genuine Norway pine extract, rich in vitamin, which is so healing to the membranes. To avoid disappointment, ask your druggist for "2½ ounces of Pinex"—do not accept anything else. A guarantee of absolute satisfaction, or money promptly refunded goes with this preparation. The Pinex Co., Ft. Wayne, Ind.

when a complaint was transmitted to council that Hill street, at the crest of the Second street hill, was being tarmed by residents in that vicinity. Councilmen thought the service director should stop the practice but he claimed that he had no more authority than council.

The question was disposed of with a motion instructing the city solicitor to notify the gardener to stop farming operations in the street or suffer prosecution.

Wednesday night's adjourned meeting was called to order before 8 o'clock, a new record for the present council. All members were present as well as a number of city officials. There were few spectators present.

Preliminary details were quickly disposed of and there was no loss of time in wading into the business on Clerk Woodward's desk.

The finance committee reported that the industrial commission of the state had rejected the new issue of bonds for the subway improvement.

The same committee reported that bids were opened, March 12, for $6000 worth of city portion bonds. The bidders were named, with the amount of the bids.

The committee recommended that the bonds be awarded to Fields, Richards & Co. of Cincinnati.

The street committee reported on the proposed paving of Kibler avenue. On account of a peculiar condition on the street, the committee recommended that the street be not paved.

The safety committee reported on the ordinance vetoed by the mayor regarding the regulation of vehicle traffic. It recommended that the ordinance be thrown into the waste-basket.

The law committee reported that Engineer H. F. Hittner had failed to file an itemized statement and recommended that the bill be not paid. Councilman Payne's motion that the bill be sent back to the law committee was adopted.

The sinking fund trustees reported that the subway bond issue had been rejected because of a lack of funds.

Engineer Wells submitted his estimate of cost of the paving of Buena Vista street, from Indiana street north. The total cost was estimated to be $6179. The cost per foot front is $2.53. Bituminous macadam paving was estimated at 44c and 89c less than brick paving, but was said to require more frequent repairs.

Councilman Payne thought the city should investigate the advisability of trying out cheaper forms of paving which are used in other cities. He mentioned a number of Columbus streets so paved. Action on the report was deferred until the next meeting.

Humane Officer Harris submitted his quarterly report, which was received and filed.

Council Clerk Woodward asked instructions regarding the disposition of $50 in the cemetery endowment fund.

Mrs. Carrie Cramer and fourteen others petitioned council to open and grade Central avenue, from Hoover street north to Wallace. The petition was referred to the street committee.

E. Carey Norris and nine others petitioned council for a sanitary sewer in Chestnut street from Fourth to Pearl streets. It went to the street committee.

Nineteen property-owners on Gay street asked council for street paving legislation. It will be investigated by the street committee.

A. H. Heisey filed a protest with council against the assessment for paving on Oakwood avenue. He alleged that the paving in front of his property was five feet narrower and was without concrete curb and gutter. His property lies north of the railroad. He asked for a readjustment of the assessment. It was referred to the law committee.

Iron Molders' Union, No. 152, reported that the organization voted unanimously to protest against the proposed division of funds for hospital purposes.

Ordinance No. 2472, by Mr. Seward, to issue bonds, was on third reading. Mr. Seward asked that the measure be laid on the table indefinitely.

Mr. Payne's resolution authorizing the clerk of council to invest $50 for a certificate of deposit in the Licking County Building and Savings company was adopted on suspension of rules.

Mr. Payne's resolution that $5042 worth of city portion bonds be awarded to Fields, Richards & Co. of Cincinnati, for their premium of $145.40, was adopted.

Councilman Legge offered a resolution instructing the city auditor to pay any portion of the 40c mill levied and collected for hospital purposes until further instructions from the city council. Councilman Adams, Ashbrook and Rexroth voted no on the adoption of the resolution, all other councilmen voting for it. It was adopted.

Councilman Rexroth's resolution to pave Kibler avenue was read the second time.

Mr. Baker's resolution authorizing the service director to raise the grade of German street was on second reading. It was adopted on suspension of rules.

Mr. Ashbrook reported that complaint had been filed that South End gardeners were ploughing up Hill street for gardening purposes. It's the first case on record where the city's streets were being used for farming purposes.

Councilman Adams offered a motion that a committee of three be appointed to confer with the county commissioner with a view of beautifying the courthouse park. The question was discussed at considerable length and the feeling was unanimous that something should be done in this matter. The motion was adopted. Messrs. Adams, Payne and Keys were named as members of the committee.

How Can I Make My Hair Thick and Long

Facts for Dandruff Sufferers.

Just why people suffering from dandruff and thin hair persist in using tonics, greasy oils, sulphur or some other freaky remedy to regain good hair, is a question hard to explain unless it is due to ignorance of the real cause of dandruff. The dandruff germ will not leave the scalp until the inside hair root is clean and healthy enough to let the hair grow as Nature willed.

Our great modern chemists have at last given us a long-needed remedy by perfecting "wildroot" prescription. "Wildroot" is surprisingly quick, for the very first applications bring a rain of dandruff from the scalp on coming, proving that its healing, cooling vegetable oils are sinking in to the irritated hair roots, (that hair tonics or sulphur fail to reach) and giving new life to the waste-clogged follicles or pores in which the hair strands are seated.

"Wildroot" does not contain any acid or alkali to make the hair dry and brittle nor is it like the glycerine tonics, which dissolve and glue the dandruff to the hair strands and never heal the root. A big bottle of "wildroot" at any druggist's will not cost much, and the chemists who make it guarantee perfect satisfaction or money back.

CLASSMATE OF BRYAN KILLED IN AN ACCIDENT.

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)

Archer City, Texas, March 18.—Papers found in the pockets of a man known as T. W. French, who died yesterday as the result of an accident near here, indicated he formerly was a member of the Indiana legislature and warden of the federal prison at Leavenworth, Kansas. Among the papers were letters from William Jennings Bryan secretary of state indicating that the two had been classmates.

French had been employed on a ranch several weeks. He was thrown from a wagon and sustained a fractured skull which caused his death.

SIX MONTHS FOR SARCASTIC POEM ABOUT THE KAISER.

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)

Berlin, Via London, March 18.—Authorship of a poem containing sarcastic references to Emperor William has resulted in First Lieutenant Alfred Humbert of the 31st Regiment of French Rifles, a war prisoner in the fortress at Strassburg being sentenced to six months imprisonment. The wife of the chief surgeon of the hospital in which Humbert was being treated and to whom he gave the poem has been sentenced to one month in prison for utterances unfriendly to Germany.

GLASS OF SALTS CLEANS KIDNEYS

If your back is aching or Bladder bothers, drink lots of water and eat less meat.

When your kidneys hurt and your back feels sore, don't get scared and proceed to load your stomach with a lot of drugs that excite the kidneys and irritate the entire urinary tract. Keep your kidneys clean like you keep your bowels clean, by flushing them with a mild, harmless salt which removes the body's uric waste and stimulates them to their normal activity. The function of the kidneys is to filter the blood. In 24 hours they strain from it 500 grains of acid and waste, so we can readily understand the vital importance of keeping the kidneys active.

Drink lots of water—you can't drink too much; also get from any pharmacist about four ounces of Jad Salts; take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast each morning for a few days and your kidneys will act fine. This famous salt is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and has been used for generations to clean and stimulate clogged kidneys; also to neutralize the acids in uric acid no longer is a source of irritation, thus ending bladder weakness.

Jad Salts is inexpensive; cannot injure; makes a delightful effervescent lithia-water drink which everyone should take now and then to keep their kidneys clean and active. Try this, also keep up the water drinking, and no doubt you will wonder what became of your kidney trouble and backache.

SLAUGHTER

IN VILLAGE OF NEUVE CHAPPELLE WAS FRIGHTFUL FROM BRITISH GUNS.

German Though Inferior in Numbers and Artillery Made Heroic Resistance.

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)

London, March 18.—The village of Neuve Chapelle, converted into a shambles by the bombardment of the British, now is a heap of ruins, thickly strewn with bodies, according to the description of the British operations in that region by an "eye-witness" and given out today by the press bureau. Although the Germans were inferior to their antagonists, both in numbers and in artillery, the eyewitness declares, they offered heroic resistance, using machine guns effectively.

At the end of March 10, the bodies of two thousand German soldiers had been found in the section south of the village. In front of one of the British battalions, east of the village, the statement asserts, 500 more were counted which did not include the large number buried in the ruins of the village.

During the night a curious device of the enemy was discovered by a British patrol. The men came upon a dummy figure stuck in the ground in front of the German trenches. Upon being moved, the figure exploded and one of the British soldiers was injured.

Describing the shelling of Aubers by the British howitzers, the eyewitness says a certain tower which was a prominent feature of the landscape, was suddenly projected into the air. It dissolved in midair and came down in a cloud of dust.

Prisoners who have been all through the war, declare that never have they experienced such a bombardment as that which preceded the assault upon Neuve Chapelle. One wounded Prussian officer declared indignantly: "You do not fight, you murder. My regiment never had a chance from the first. Nothing could live under such a fire."

The resentment of prisoners against the British artillery has been freely expressed. In spite of their exhaustion the aspects of the prisoners spoke highly of German discipline. Their person were extraordinarily clean, and most of them were fresh shaven. They were unanimously optimistic, believing soon would see the finish with the Russians and that they then would crush France and Great Britain.

One officers stated that three German princes, including Prince Leopold of Hohenzollern were seen in one of the battalions at Neuve Chapelle. This prisoner expressed the belief that all three princes had been killed. In conclusion, the eyewitness says he believes the Germans lost 18,000 men at Neuve Chapelle.

There is a Prince Frederick Leopold of Hohenzollern, who is a cousin of emperor William. He was born in 1895 and had a commission as first lieutenant in an infantry regiment.

Ruler of Greece and Former Premier

M. VENIZELOS.

The Greeks are now engaged in a bitter political contest to decide if they will enter the war against Turkey or remain neutral, and the fight has come down to a trial of strength between King Constantine and the Queen on one side and former Premier Venizelos on the other.

The king was raised in the German army and he has for years been a partisan of Germany. The queen is a sister of Kaiser Wilhelm, and of course, her sympathies are with Germany. It is said that this position has made them unpopular. Venizelos on the other hand, is the strongest man in the country, and is believed to be the most popular leader there. He believes, like most Greeks, that when Turkey is finally driven from Europe by the allies Russia will fall heir to her possessions, unless they get in on the war before the division of spoils.

POLICE DESTROY KIDS' SHACK AT PUMP STA. SITE

Police Chief Sheridan and a squad of officers Wednesday night captured by assault a stronghold defended by four youths ranging in age from 12 to 18 years, which had been fortified within the abandoned foundations of the old water works pumping station a half mile south of the present plant. The shack had been cleverly constructed of materials secured from the nearby creek bottoms. It was necessary for the officers to enter the place via a ladder which was placed against the concrete walls. The boys were ordered to their homes and on Thursday morning a detail of officers was sent to the scene with instructions to destroy the habitation. When the officers visited the place Wednesday night, Patrolman Blatter twice fell from the ladder and was badly shaken up.

NEW MARKET TO BE LOCATED ON OLD CANAL SITE

Articles of incorporation were issued by the secretary of state at Columbus Thursday to the People's Market company of Newark, with a capital stock of $25,000. Among the incorporators are Jay E. Sigler, Dr. D. W. Winters, William E. Miller and H. R. Scheidter.

This is a preliminary step towards the construction of a new market building on the old canal site between Second and Third streets, and when the improvement is completed it will represent an expenditure of approximately $65,000.

It is proposed to construct a brick building the entire length of the site, being two stories high at each end. Two store rooms will front on both Second and Third street with an archway between leading to the market.

Four flats, two each on Second and Third streets are provided for in the plans.

The proposed arcade between the Rutledge and Jones buildings south from South Park Place is considered in connection with the market plans though it is a separate improvement and is not an assured thing at present.

Practically all the dealers occupying stalls on the present market have signed up for stalls in the new market.

MEETING OF TRINITY MEN LAST EVENING

The Trinity Men's Club held a very enjoyable meeting at the Parish House last night, the chief events being a fine chicken supper and an address by Dr. Joseph Leighton, professor in the department of philosophy of Ohio State University.

Nearly one hundred men were present and after an enjoyable social visit were later seated at the tables for the decorations being in keeping with St. Patrick's day. Shamrocks being the souvenirs found at the plates. Even the ice cream was green as was also the cake.

The address of Dr. Leighton was a masterly one, his topic being "The German Question and the Cause of the Present War." The speaker was well versed on the subject and he covered it from every angle. The evening proved a delightful one for all who were present.

LIGHT COMPANY PROPOSITION IN ANOTHER FORM

Editor of The Advocate:

The argument has been advanced that our price to the city of one and one-tenth cents for K.W.H. for current for street lighting does not mean what it says, on account of line loss and other matters. Now the line loss will occur just the same whether the city produces its own current or buys it, and the comparison of our price with the cost of making current by the city takes into full consideration this line loss and other matters.

However, in order that there may be no confusion in the minds of the voters as to just what our proposition does mean, we will make the proposition in another way.

Certain city officials have stated that the present installation of lamps in the street lighting system is as follows:

360 A.C. arc lamps.
10 flaming arc lamps.
46 four ampere magnittie arc lamps.

75 one hundred candle power incandescent lamps, and that other four ampere magnittie lamps would be added from time to time.

Now then, basing our figures upon the statements above referred to as to the number and kind of lamps now in use, in the street lighting system, we propose to furnish current for the street lamps, now installed, on a 3600-hour schedule for the sum of $6895.42 per year; and on a 2190-hour, or Philadelphia moonlight schedule, for $4192.85 per year, and we will furnish current for each additional four ampere magnittie arc lamp, which may be installed for $10.77 per year on the 3600-hour schedule, and for $6.55 per year on the 2190-hour schedule.

AN EASY WAY TO END CATARRH FOREVER

Simple Home Treatment Destroys Germs of This Dangerous Disease.

The reason why so many people who suffer from Catarrh never seem able to get cured is that they are continually seeking the momentary relief of sprays, douching, greasy creams, ointments, etc. Such things to open up swollen nostrils and clear the head temporarily, besides stopping for a while the disgusting flowing, hawking, spitting and choking, but they never cure. To drive out Catarrh for good you have got to get down to its real cause. Catarrh is a germ disease. The air is always full of catarrh germs thrown off by one person and absorbed by another and when the system does fail to throw off such germs they find permanent lodgement in the nose, throat and head and multiply rapidly.

The germs of catarrh can be best destroyed by inhaling the pure medicated air of Hromel (pronounced High-o-me). This splendid and powerful combination of oil of Eucalyptus with other healing agents has a wonderful germicidal action. You breathe its air into your nose, throat and lungs by means of a small hard rubber inhaler which T. J. Evans and other leading druggists have in Newark and vicinity supply with every treatment. This medicated air is certain death to the germs of Catarrh and drives them completely out of your system and when the germs are destroyed the catarrh with all its disagreeable symptoms will stop. Even agreeable symptoms will give refreshing relief, while, if you will use it two or three times a day for a few weeks it will completely banish catarrh and every symptom of catarrh. As Hromel is pleasant to breathe and is always sold by druggists everywhere with a positive guarantee of successful results or money back, surely no Catarrhal sufferer should go long before trying this simple home remedy.

WAR SUPPLIES ON DOZEN SHIPS, READY TO LEAVE

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)

New York, March 18.—Work is being rushed today in the loading of more than a dozen steamers here with food supplies, ammunition, guns, motor trucks and other material for the use of the allies in the war. Several steamship companies have been compelled to charter additional vessels to carry the European heavy cargoes waiting on New York piers.

The steamer Malte was at the French line pier today, taking on board a 12,000 ton cargo said to be chiefly war supplies while another French vessel, La Gasgone was being prepared to take horses to the allied armies on the continent. The steamer which was formerly in the passenger service, was equipped with stalls for that purpose.

The Philadelphia was to leave for Liverpool today with a cargo and the St. Louis and Orduna were loading to sail Saturday. The Europa and other Italian ships sailing this week, had their decks crowded with horses and their holds well filled with army supplies.

IRON TRADE REVIEW

Cleveland, O., March 18.—The Iron Trade Review today says: Tremendous as demands have been for war materials for export, the outlook is that even greater orders will be placed in this country. A large steel company is about to close a war contract which, for the amount of money involved, is more important than any similar contract placed since war was declared. The company has completed plans for large additions to its capacity to be ready for operating within 90 days after the booking of the contract.

Strictly domestic business is not entirely satisfactory, but March promises to record the largest tonnage of structural contracts entered during any month since last September.

WILKINS RUN REVIVAL.

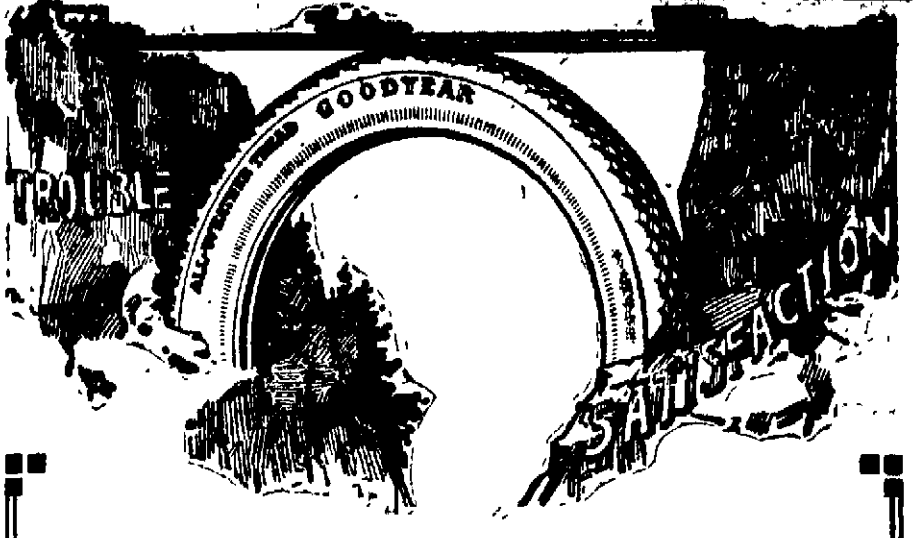

Quite an interesting series of revival meetings is being conducted in the school house at Wilkins Run, by Rev. A. B. Cox, Rev. M. R. White, Rev. Mr. Norris and E. M. Larason. The meetings have been in progress for several evenings and will continue for some time yet. The choir work is in charge of Mr. Warman of this city. Eight persons were converted on last evening, and the outlook for many more is very bright. The ministers in charge intend to organize a strong United Brethren Church at the "Corners" as one is needed very much, there.

Three automobile loads of personal workers from this city will go to the services this evening.

Fortified Tires Span the Way from Trouble

Goodyear tires have bridged the way for countless men to less trouble and tax. And those men, by their endorsement, brought our last year's output up to 1,479,883 tires.

Why do you suppose that Goodyear tires hold top place—you who use other tires? They have held that place for years, outselling any other.

The only reason, as you must know, is that Goodyears average best. And that's how they are bound to win you.

The Super-Tire

They are not trouble-proof. Mishaps come to them, misuse affects them, much like other tires. But Goodyears are Fortified. Tires. They protect you in five ways employed by no other maker. They combat five major troubles in unique ways, exclusive to Fortified Tires. These five extra features cost us fortunes. One alone—our "On-Air" cure—costs us $450,000 yearly. But they save Goodyear users millions of dollars yearly. They avoid countless troubles for them.

Lower Prices

On February 1st we made another big reduction. That makes three in two years, totaling 45 per cent. We are giving you, through mammoth production, the best tire value ever known. Please prove this, for your own sake, by the tire itself. The following Goodyear Service Stations will supply you:

Who says gasoline isn't one of the necessities of life on these spring days with your best girl looking longingly out of the window.

From the slow progress of the campaign in the East, it is probably some time before the name of Berlin will be changed to Berlinograd.

Why is it that when a building gets afire and a family is involved in bitter trouble, the whole town gathers and seems to enjoy it as a social occasion?

Some of the occupants of the ten story metropolitan apartment houses are angry at their congressman for not sending them their garden seeds more promptly.

The fact that a man walks into a garage and asks the prices of costly machines does not necessarily prove that the grocer can collect a bill of $12.98 from him for supplies.

A rise in the stock market, by which the speculator gets his profit, is always the signal for the outside public to buy securities, on which the professional makes another profit by forcing them down.

One of the popular ways to reducing the cost of living is to start a garden and pay out $18.74 more for seed, labor, fertilizer, etc., than the vegetables for the table would cost at the grocery store.

Last Night's Lecture.

An audience of Newark men had the pleasure of listening to a scholarly and most interesting address at Trinity Parish house last night by Prof. Leighton of Ohio State University on the "organization of the German government and the underlying causes of the war." Dr. Leighton, head of the philosophical department of the Ohio State University, was for years a resident of Germany while a student in European Universities and he has an intimate acquaintance with leading European men, a thorough knowledge of history and a forceful form of expression.

Rector Franklin is bringing to these monthly meetings some of the strong men of the state—John H. Clark of Cleveland, Dr. Washington Gladden of Columbus, Dr. C. W. Chamberlain of Granville, Dr. W. F. Pelegrin of Gambier, being among those who have previously addressed the Men's club. There is certainly a place in Newark for such an organization.

Elective Assessors.

The Beidler bill abolishing the office of District Assessor has just passed the Senate but an amendment has been tacked on providing that the old Cox assessors shall be retained this year instead of having assessors appointed by the County Auditor as the bill originally provided as passed by the House—an admission that said assessors selected by the merit system are superior to any novices that might have been selected by the County Auditors.

Jasper Ellington is the old-fashioned veteran who still refers to it as "the late unpleasantness."

When a woman desires to apologize for the appearance of her hat she says, "It's the style they're wearing now."

When a woman is on trial the best defense is that she is "a wife and mother." If she chances to be neither the best defense is a "frail little woman."

The nomenclature of the matrimonial relation grows more picturesque with the passing of time. The man who formerly called his wife "the woman" now refers to her as "the other half of the sketch."

An old man looks for comfort, a young man for excitement.

Nothing much happens. When a man slept badly last night it becomes a matter of such significance to him that he talks about it all day.

The most demoralizing temptation, and the most difficult one for a man to resist, is a dangerous woman.

What has become of the old-fashioned man who named one of his boys "for" Benjamin Franklin?

Ohio's Legislature.

While the legislature is solemnly debating bills relating to the hawk, the quail, the fox, the Carolina dove, and various kinds of fish, it hasn't found time to do anything for the welfare of men and women.

The bills for an eight-hour work-day for women and for one day's rest in seven for workers have slumbered in committee for weeks. So has the bill giving public school teachers the protection of civil service rules.

The lobbyists have sized up the legislature, and the old days of theater parties, wine and auto rides at the lobbyists' expense have returned.—Columbus Citizen.

European War.

One does not need to be an opponent of woman suffrage to perceive the fallacy of the oft-quoted argument that if the women of the warring European nations had possessed the ballot there would have been peace. The men have votes, but they were not asked to express their opinion on the subject at the polls. It is about as easy to prevent war by popular vote as to stop a thunderstorm.—Pittsburg Gazette-Times.

VOICE OF SPRING.

The gentle rains are falling, the voice of Spring is calling. "Go, boys, sons of men! Old Winter's shed his garment, and every living varmint should look alive again!"

Get busy with your knitting! This is no time for sitting and dreaming by the stove; all Nature is exclaiming, the idle triller shaming. "The Springtime has arrived!" The old gray hen is cackling, for once again she's kicking her great grace-honored stunk in her lowly station helps out the hungry nation, as for the eggs we hunt. The mule works in the collar until the galled spots bother for divers healing salves. The cows are softly singing, as from the woods they're bringing their tall, long-eared calves. It is the time for toiling, that puts may all be boiling when Winter comes again; it is the time for Spring, sons of men! The voice of Spring is calling. "It is the time for springing!" so loudly she states: "shake off the cloth of Winter, and huckle like a sprinter who's trotting for a prize!"

American Holidays Not Celebrated In A Proper Spirit

By Rabbi M. J. GRIES, President of the Central Conference of American Rabbis

THE birthdays of Washington and Lincoln should be remembered not for the celebration of the days, but for the powerful messages they bring.

Unfortunately all the holidays on the American national calendar have been transformed by the worldly spirit of our generation to public holidays. The day of the Declaration of Independence and our national day of Memorial ARE NOT CONSECRATED AS DAYS OF NOBLE THOUGHT OF COUNTRY AND OF NATIONAL UPLIFT, BUT ARE DESECRATED BY ALMOST UNIVERSAL MERRYMAKING AND FEASTING, PLEASURE SEEKING AND SPORT.

What a lesson the public men of our own time might learn from the life and memory of Washington!

BOTH HE AND LINCOLN WERE LOVERS OF THEIR COUNTRY; BOTH LOVERS OF MANKIND, HONORABLE IN THEIR PUBLIC LIFE AND CLEAN IN THEIR PERSONAL LIFE, THE TWO GREATEST OF AMERICANS—AMONG THE GREATEST IN ALL THE WORLD.

Pointed Observations

Seeing America first will very properly include seeing California as well as Iowa this year.—Des Moines Capital.

Italy is just aching to have somebody knock that chip off her shoulder, but it begins to look as if she would have to do it herself.—Pittsburg Gazette-Times.

Some former congressmen won't miss the roll call, but, oh, you cloak-room.—Washington Post.

Vendors of silk stockings deplore the agitation for street cars that can be entered without climbing.—Louisville Courier Journal.

After the war is over about the biggest job of repairing on record will have to be done on the international law.—Pittsburg Gazette-Times.

Tantalizing.

Husband—Can you make any more of that combination salad we had yesterday? Wife—Like it? Husband—Should say not. (One minute I dreamed I had all kinds of cars and no gasoline and the next I had all kinds of gasoline and no cars.)—New York Globe.

Popular.

It Is Hard To Hide A Hammer.

Luke McLuke Says:

A man may be as black as he is painted, but a woman is never as pink as she is painted.

When we see a painting that seems to have neither purpose nor reason, we call it art and let it go at that.

It is hard to realize that a big, built necked, pop eyed, flat nosed guy with sandy whiskers once took a prize at a baby show.

A man is never damaged as much as the amount he owes for, and he is never damaged as little as the amount the jury awards him.

If most of us were as big as we imagine we are, the streets would have to be widened.

The trouble with a woman is that she always wants to do something else. It is different with a man. But a woman is more afraid of getting fat than she is of getting consumption.

No, Harold, women do not like to kiss each other any more than men like to kiss when they meet. But the women like to make the men imagine that they are missing something.

There isn't as much to bark about at night as a dog thinks there is. And there isn't as much going on downtown at night as a woman thinks there is.

Before he gets her he thinks she is a clinging vine. But later on he likens her to poison ivy.

The fellows who are not getting any of it are the ones who know that the world is full of graft.

The old fashioned man who used to wear a Melutosh now has a son who wears a raincoat.

When you find it in the butter, a blond hair looks just as bad as a gray one.

It is easy to tell a girl that you love her when you don't. But it is hard to tell her that you love her when you do.

Some men regard their conscience and their appendix as excess baggage. Most of the men who are seeking positions are doing jobs.

There isn't enough horsepower in the world to force a woman to do what she will do willingly after a little jolly-ing.

About the time daughter has made a real hit with the young man who is her last chance father will walk into the front room where daughter and her beau are conferring, and father will want to know where in Sam Hill daughter put his safety razor after she got through using it.

Any boy who keeps a white waist clean for two hours hasn't much of a future and is liable to develop into the champion prospect worker of his neighborhood.

Before he gets her he thinks she is a candy kid, but later on he regards her as a lemon drop.

Reptiles With 2,000 Teeth.

Many herbivorous reptiles of the mesozoic period had enormously long blind legs, on which they were able to wade far out into the deep water after seaweeds and other food. These creatures were particularly extraordinary in point of their dental equipment, inasmuch as each of them had about 2,000 grinders to chew with, arranged in magazines of 500 each, like cartridges.

Society

Wednesday evening a delightful meeting of the Uka Ku Soota club was held at the home of Mr. Albert Black in Maple avenue. The house was artistically arranged with the prevailing color of the day, and the members wore an emblem of "Old Erin" in some form or other. Music and games were enjoyed and a quartette, composed of Messrs. Albert Black, Albert Elliott, and Misses Sophia Siegle and Beatrice Thompson was most delightfully appreciated by all present.

At a late hour, refreshments were served to the members. Those present were: Misses Florence Pratt, Anna Wheeler, Lena Gilmore, Beatrice Thompson, Sophia Siegle, Thelma Frankenberg, Lucile Hohl, Rachel McLaughlin, Beatrice Sigman, Grace Black, Messrs. Donald Helmick, Myron Cline, Charles Thompson, Albert Elliott, Albert Black, Edgar Albright, Walter (Cap) Wilson, Wash Gleason, Ellis Lamp, Gerald Helmick, and Mr. and Mrs. William Black.

Mrs. Philip Koblenz was pleasantly surprised at her home in West Main street by a number of her friends, it being her birthday anniversary. Mrs. Koblenz received many beautiful and useful presents. The evening was spent in various games, and a good time was enjoyed by all.

At a late hour a dainty repast was served the following guests: Mr. and Mrs. J. Koblenz and son Harry, Mr. and Mrs. Philip Koblenz, Jr. and son, Mrs. Karl F. Koblenz and son and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Duncan McDonald and son, Mr. and Mrs. George Glasmeier and sons Harry, Carl and Frederick, Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Baker, Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Sedan, Mr. and Mrs. Smutner and son Alton, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Fredenour and daughters Leontine and Adelaide, Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Fredenour, daughter Helen, Mr. and Mrs. Gus Weiland and son Howard, Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Gibbs and daughters Laura and Helen, Mrs. Charles Carter, Miss Mabel Baker, Mr. Herbert Nell, Mr. Philip Koblenz, sr. All departed at a late hour, wishing her many returns of the day.

The members of the Liberty Sewing club were entertained at the home of Mrs. Sherman Frisbie in Maholm street on Wednesday afternoon. The next meeting will be at the home of Mrs. John Embry in Sixteenth street.

GLASPY-RENFREW.

Rev. W. D. Ward, pastor of the Central Church of Christ, officiated at the marriage of Miss Linnie Renfrew and Mr. Earl M. Glaspie on Wednesday evening at 8 o'clock. They were accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. McCoy. The bridegroom is employed as a brakeman by the B. and O. railroad company and Mr. and Mrs. Glaspie will be at home at 121 East Main street.

The Progressive class club of White Chapel held its monthly meeting at the home of Mary and John Ryan. A part of the social hour was taken up by a play given by some of the members of the class.

A dainty lunch was served to the following members: Misses Helen Clem, Phoebe Ellen Hillman, May Parker, Mary Ryan, Hazel Dicken, Mary Dicken, Forest Crouse, Allie Mae Clark, Eva Chism, and Florence Coyle, Messrs. Kirby Clem, John Ryan, Geo. Belt, Earl Sprague, John Pitzer, Carl Clugish, Frank Brown, Meda Felumelle, Lester Coyle, Russell Varner and Earl Hamrick. There were several visitors.

MERRICK-HURBAUGH.

The wedding of Miss Nora Hurbaugh, daughter of Mrs. George Robinson of South Sixth street, and Mr. Raymond E. Merrick took place on Wednesday evening at 7 o'clock at the parsonage of the Central Church of Christ in West Locust street, Rev. W. D. Ward officiating. Mr. and Mrs. Merrick will be at home in Nineteenth street.

With every feature suggestive of the feast of St. Patrick, Mrs. W. P. Miller entertained with an exceptionally pretty children's party on Wednesday afternoon from 2 to 6 at her home, 22 West Church street. The party honored her daughter, Catherine Elizabeth Miller, who celebrated her tenth birthday anniversary.

In the peanut hunt the souvenir was received by Charlotte Knauss, and it was an Irish cane with a fan in the end. The award for pinning the hat on the pig, was a little snake of the brightest green, and was received by Pauline Nagle.

A two course dinner was served and the appointments were lavish. Footstools of green and white were suspended from the chandelier to the ends of the long table and it was centered with the birthday cake surrounded by ten green candles. At each place were found bonbon baskets of green, a tiny shamrock and miniature dolls gowned in green crepe paper dresses, and all were given a little green flag. Upon unfolding the napkins paper hats of assorted shapes were found and before going to the table all the children were given little aprons of green and white paper and marched to their places to the tune of "It's a Long Way to Tipperary."

The little guests were: Pauline Nagle, Virginia Cramer, Sarah Baird, Mary Franklin, Esther Jones, Elizabeth Kreig, Elizabeth Criswell, Elizabeth King, Dorothy Hersherberg, Bessie Wright, Ruth Davis, Mary Reel, Margaret Bowers, Winona Timberlake.

A GOOD COMPLEXION MEANS PURE BLOOD

Everybody that wants a fine, glowing, youthful skin, should take old reliable Hood's Sarsaparilla, a physician's prescription, which gives a clear, healthy color. When your blood is made pure, pimples, boils, hives, eczema disappear. Languor, loss of appetite, tired feeling, weakness are symptoms of impure, unhealthy blood. Hood's Sarsaparilla purifies the blood. Get a bottle today.

Dorothy Bourner Virginia Nye, Virginia Scott, Charlotte Knauss, Margaret Fulton, and Harriet Miller. Mrs. Miller was assisted in entertaining the children by: Mrs. E. C. Miller, Mrs. Wilson Hawkins, Mrs. Fred Jones, Mrs. A. W. Patton, Misses Elizabeth Felix, Mabelle Mitchell and Mary L. Miller.

The Young People's society of the Fifth Street Baptist church delightfully entertained with an Irish social at the home of Mrs. Eugene Ball in Clinton street last Tuesday evening. The house was decorated in honor of St. Patrick, the color scheme being orange and green. After a half hour's business session, the evening was spent in music, games and social conversation. Dainty refreshments were served to forty-nine members and guest.

The Social Sewing club met at the home of Mrs. Hammond, March 10. This meeting had been postponed on account of sickness and deaths. Owing to this fact thirteen members were absent. Mrs. Bebout joined the club. There was one guest, Mrs. Webb. The time was spent in sewing and having a sociable time. Light refreshments were served. The next meeting will be with Mrs. Lake in three weeks.

Miss Lathrop of Columbus, who gave dancing lessons here during the early winter, will resume her class on Friday evening. It will be held as usual in Assembly hall.

The Ladies' Moose Circle gave a most successful euchre party Tuesday evening at Moose hall. There were twenty-six tables and the winners of the prizes were Mrs. Stewart, Mrs. Harry Gruber, Messrs. Ed Murdoch, J. L. Lyons.

The ladies served an appetizing lunch under the auspices of Steward J. S. Kuster, assisted by the degree team as waiters.

On Wednesday evening the members of the F. W. W. club gave a dancing party at the home of their president, Miss Ted Ruff. All members were dressed in green with pink sash, making it both symbolic of St. Patrick's day and the colors of the club. At a late hour dainty refreshments were served, green carnations being given as souvenirs.

Those present were: Misses Anna Hutson, Mary Ruff, Mary Sullivan, Blanche Tanner, Meriam Bolender, Nettie Pries, Ted Ruff, Messrs. Clyde Priest, Lawrence Williams, George Beck, George Hibler, Frank Coffman, Charles Lane and Robert Stepleton.

Mrs. Sadie Marriott very delightfully entertained at her home in St. Louisville, the members of the Christian Endeavor on Tuesday evening. Games and music were enjoyed until a late hour when a dainty luncheon was served.

The members and guests were: Misses Nellie Evans, Mame Coffman, Olivia Teeters, Zula Smith, Orisia Hay and Lucille Elliott of Newark, Messrs. Ernest Wittermutter, Boyd Van Fleet, Howard Van Wey, Floyd Van Voorhis, Lester Coffman, Friend Van Fleet, Lewis Eshelman, George Marriott, Clark Weaver, Raymond Marriott, Leslie Bullock, George Sterritt, Clarence Stubble, Verne Harris, Walter Stubble, Messrs. and Mesdames Rolla Housholder, Clarence Miller, Gail Shuff, Jay Hunt, J. C. Marriott and J. J. Hunt, Mrs. Stella Stubble, Mrs. Indus Marriott, Mrs. Della Harris, Mrs. Emily Van Wey and the hostesses, Mrs. Sadie Marriott.

On Friday afternoon, March 19, the public school children will give an entertainment in the High School Auditorium at 8:30 o'clock. THE SKIN-DEEP BEAUTY.

A beautiful, natural complexion is the desire of nearly every woman, and in the absence of it, all sorts of descriptive artifices are restored to that give pleasing results and in many instances great injury. There are a great many preparations that are beneficial for beautifying the complexion, but one thing should be borne in mind—that the skin must be kept clean and the pores open so that they can discharge the impurities of the body.

If the skin were perfectly constructed with a compound impervious to moisture one could not live over six hours. This experiment was once tried on a child at Florence. The child died in a few hours.

How is the skin to be kept fine and beautiful? By perfect cleanliness, air, sunshine and good health. The entire body should be washed daily, the face twice a day. This cleanses and permits the skin to act freely.

Sunshine, in spite of tanning and freckles, is good for the skin. So is fresh air. Both united give bloom and color to it, and if the air and sunshine are taken early and regularly before the former has lost its morning fragrance, and while the latter has not yet gained its power to tan, a beautiful bloom may be expected.

It often occurs that one appears in public despite fatigue and a pale complexion. In such a case try the cure of a famous beauty of England—that of giving the face a drink—which is given as follows: A bowl of cold water is prepared, close the eyes, hold the breath and immerse the face deep down into the bowl of water—holding it submerged as long as it is possible to hold the breath.

Raise the head, breathe deeply and again submerge the face in the water. This should be repeated six or eight times, the face then gently dried with a soft towel, and an application of powder will make a complexion that is presentable before any audience. Try it.

The complexion, like everything else that is precious, should be taken good care of, and not neglected for a moment. One's mode of living has much to do with the complexion. Temperance, exercise and cleanliness are the three principal requisites, but one cannot always listen to the demands of nature, and in consequence must pay the penalty.

We have beauty doctors well versed and able to cope with the various ailments which the skin is heir to; we also have preparations on the market for overcoming skin disorders. In most cases it would be practical to report to one or the other for relief, but if it is not convenient to do so, I will repeat the experience of one of our stage celebrities, whose complexion is the envy of many.

She arises early, drinks a cup of hot water and eats a cracker or two;

then lightly clothed she immediately starts for a brisk two to five-mile walk. Returning home, a hot bath (with plenty of soap) and a rub-down with a rough towel, then fresh clothing and a breakfast of fruit, cereal (without cream), toast and weak tea or coffee (without cream) is partaken of sparingly.

About two hours after breakfast she devotes ten to thirty minutes to various light exercises, such as bending the body and flexing the muscles, this prevents sluggish circulation, which is the cause of many poor complexions.

She also subjects not only her face, but the entire body, to frequent massage treatments. In this manner she retains the bloom of youth. In addition to the above she carefully selects the cream and powder for the face too much stress cannot be placed on this.

Many consider both are expensive luxuries. This is a mistake; the face being always exposed to the elements, it requires special protection to keep it from becoming coarse, dry, wrinkled and blotched.

Your Boys and Girls

The child in a delicate state of health needs more entertaining at least when confined to bed and many interesting things can be done by him and for him to keep him amused and entertained. In contagious diseases, tin toys and dolls or rubber or celluloid are the wisest to give him as they can be boiled at the end of each day.

I have read of a clever way to make a modeling substance with which he can amuse himself for hours—flour and enough water to form a dough which can be burned when the child has finished playing with it.

If the disease is not a contagious one, a magazine from which to cut out pictures to paste in a scrap book may be given the child and the scrap book may be sent by him to a hospital and given to one of the poor children who has no toys to play with while confined there.

Some Forms of Rheumatism Curable

Rheumatism is a disease characterized by pains in the joints and in the muscles. The most common forms are: Acute and Chronic Rheumatism, Rheumatic Headaches, Stiff Neck, Rheumatism and Limbago, and the three types can be helped almost instantly by applying some of Sloan's Liniment. An application of Sloan's Liniment two or three times a day to the affected part will give instant relief. Sloan's Liniment is good for pain, and especially Rheumatic Pain, because it penetrates to the seat of the trouble, soothes the afflicted part and draws the pain. "Sloan's Liniment is a medicine." MAYOR BIGBEE WILL OPEN THE AUTO EXHIBIT

An address by Mayor Bigbee, special music by an orchestra and other interesting features are planned by the committee, Fred Simpson, C. A. Pence and Mr. Yoeman in charge of the Automobile Show in the Arcade and Arcade Annex beginning next Monday night.

It is the second annual show of the local organization of auto dealers and there is every indication that it will excel last year's show in every detail.

The Arcade and Annex have been divided into display spaces and last night every space but one had been sold. There will be 36 spaces all occupied by auto dealers or dealers in accessories.

Automobiles of 22 different makes, including the finest cars manufactured will be on exhibition. Of course each exhibitor will see to it that his cars are in the finest possible shape and it is expected that the exhibits will fairly radiate the enthusiasm of the dealers.

Dealers are unanimous in predicting that the 1915 season will be the greatest in the history of the automobile industry. They are also free to admit that the promise of success is an indication of the return of prosperity.

Newark dealers have been quick to take advantage of the fact that Newark people are up-to-date enough to appreciate and enjoy a first class show and no expense has been spared to make this event one of the best ever given in Central Ohio. The local dealers will dispute any city's right to claim a better show, with the exception of Columbus, Cleveland, Toledo and Cincinnati. And, they modestly assert, it will compare favorably with shows in these cities.

Readers' View Point

District Assessor Is Ready.
Editor of The Advocate:—When the County Auditor takes over the duties of the District Assessor's office, by virtue of the Better bill, he will not be embarrassed by any delays or failure to prepare for this year's assessment. I have the work preparatory to the new assessment well in hand; such of the new blanks as have been certified to me by the Tax Commission of Ohio have been ordered printed and in addition I have compiled a complete list by wards and townships of all the intangible personal property listed in the year 1914, and have made out a list of all owners of mortgages living in Licking county, and another list of the owners of mortgages on lands in Licking county, but who reside outside of said county. I have appraised the real estate of all public utilities in the county and am now making the new transfers and as this work cannot be fully completed before the day preceding the second Monday of April, ample time will be given the Auditor to complete this work.

I desire to thank the good citizens of Licking county for their hearty co-operation during my incumbency of this office, and all my employees and deputy assessors whose loyalty to me will never be forgotten, and whose efficiency has never been surpassed in the discharge of their respective duties.

W. H. ANDERSON,
District Assessor.

Appropriation for Hospital.
Editor of The Advocate:—Before there is a division of the money appropriated by the Council for hospital purposes, I wish to urge two objections to such a division which I believe are insuperable.

It is a well defined principle in our American life that no religious body or institution shall receive financial aid from the taxes of the people. It makes no difference how beneficial it is to the community it is un-American to tax the people for its support. Religious bodies must support their own institutions without state or city aid.

The Sanitarium, while it no doubt is doing much charity work like all hospitals under religious influences, is conducted under the auspices of The Seventh Day Adventists, a religious society. To all intents and purposes, it is an institution belonging to this sect. It is therefore not in the slightest degree entitled to any portion of the money derived by taxation and appropriated for charitable uses.

The parochial schools of this city would be far more justified in asking for a division of the school money than is the Sanitarium in requesting part of the money appropriated for the City Hospital. The parochial schools are not operated for profit, as is the Sanitarium, but are purely gratuitous contributions to the educational system of the city. Yet we would all be unalterably opposed to the use of public funds for the support of parochial schools.

Why is this? Because in a free country, Religion and State must be kept separate. This is essential that the welfare of all may be maintained. Violate the principle and a precedent is established that will bring disaster. What is to hinder the Roman Catholics, The Episcopalians, the Presbyterians or any other religious body asking for part of the public funds because they are doing charity work?

Again, the Sanitarium is an institution primarily for profit. If Mr. Norton or Mr. Edmiston loaned a few books without pay would they be entitled to part of the money appropriated for the Public Library? The City Hospital is all that this city can and ought to support by taxation. Now that we have it let us take care not to cripple it.

Very truly Yours,
LEWIS P. FRANKLIN,
Rector of Trinity Church.

If Rheuma, the wonderful prescription for rheumatism sold by T. J. Evans and all druggists, does not cure any purchaser, the druggist will return your money without any red tape.

Rheumatism is a dangerous disease; because of its shifting nature it often strikes the heart and proves fatal. Any one with even a taint of rheumatism ought to drive it out as soon as possible.

Rheumatism is caused by sluggish, worn-out or over-worked kidneys, which become clogged and fail to eliminate the impurities from the system.

Rheuma acts promptly and directly upon the kidneys; it cleanses them; it absolutely renovates and leaves them in perfect condition, able to do the work nature intended they should do. 50 cents a bottle.

GOLD DUST

You have used it many years, but do you know all its uses?

Millions of women use Gold Dust three times a day in washing dishes—

They use it regularly for scrubbing floors or woodwork—

They use it for washing windows—

But they do not realize the many ways in which Gold Dust can be used.

It meets every cleaning and brightening need in the house. The active principle of Gold Dust—the valuable antiseptic cleansing agent—quickly dissolves and removes dirt, grease and grime, so that you rinse it away, leaving the surface you have cleaned sanitarily bright and new-looking.

Give Gold Dust your full confidence. It actually works for you.

Gold Dust dissolves quickly in hot or cold water and makes a perfect cleansing solution.

A package of Gold Dust supplies you with the only cleaning and brightening powder you need in the home—and gives you the best results you can desire.

Use Gold Dust not only for washing dishes, but for washing glassware, washing bath tubs and bath room fixtures, cleaning and brightening metal work, pots, pans, and kettles, for scrubbing floors, washing woodwork, cleaning and freshening linoleum and oil cloth, and for all the hundreds of uses for which it is so particularly supreme.

Gold Dust is as inexpensive as it is indispensable.

Licking County Belgian Relief Commission Makes Its Final Report, Extending Thanks to All Who Aided

The officers and chairman of the various committees of the Licking County Belgian Relief Commission met Tuesday afternoon at the home of the president, Mrs. Frank Kennedy in North Fifth street.

The secretary's and treasurer's reports were read and approved. There being a balance on hand of $9.68 it was decided to leave it in the bank for thirty days or until another request shall come for further assistance in this herculean task of feeding a whole nation.

The chairman of the committees next gave reports of their work. Two out-of-town ladies being present, Mrs. Atkinson of Pataskala and Mrs. Burton Case of Granville, their reports added to the interest of the afternoon.

The women wish to express their gratitude to the Licking county farmers, as well as to all the townspeople, who so generously came to the front with food and money. They believe that the car which left Newark last week is a token of the feeling which reigned in all hearts when the chance came for Licking county to help feed the gallant little sister across the sea. Stuffed full to overflowing almost, was that car—in weight between 30,000 and 60,000 pounds. How long such a quantity of food will nourish a given number of people, we cannot estimate, but the pleasure of having given so generously and ungrudgingly will long remain with the givers.

The newspapers were most generous and kind in publishing daily the articles sent them by the press committee.

The following is the complete report of the local branch of the commission. Weights are only approximate.

TREASURER'S REPORT.

Total cash receipts $ 607.97
Total disbursements 598.29

Balance on hand $ 9.68

RESPECTFULLY SUBMITTED.

JESSIE L. ROBBINS.

Newark donations—Hominy, 2,713 lbs.; beans, 891 lbs.; rice, 352 lbs.; salt, 1,249 lbs.; sugar, 250 lbs.; corn-meal, 478 lbs.; rolled oats, 896 lbs.; coffee, 32 lbs.; smoked meats, 915 lbs.; dried fruits 360 lbs.; flour, 1,600 lbs.; wheat, 340 bu.; milk, 1103 cans; shelled corn, 68 bu.; canned vegetables, 276 cans; clothing, 921 garments; Dr. Wiley Food Boxes, 8; miscellaneous groceries, 2 large boxes.

The donations from towns throughout the county are approximately as follows:

Utica—King's Daughters, cash $10; 9 boxes food stuff, including flour, wheat, canned goods, etc.

Homer—27 boxes same.

Total weight Utica and Homer 2800 lbs.

Pataskala, Summit and Jersey—Milk, flour, canned goods, sugar, infants' food, smoked meats, etc., 1570 lbs.

Jacksontown—Wheat, corn, beans, hominy, milk, smoked meat, flour, etc., 1844 lbs.

Etma—Wheat, potatoes, two boxes of groceries, 650 lbs.

Hebron—One box groceries, 250 lbs.; cash, $19.35.

Croton—One box groceries, 200 lbs.

Granville—It is impossible to give even at a guess the weight of the very generous donations sent in from our neighboring college town. It came in in installments, and was not kept separate at headquarters. Both circles of The King's Daughters and The Fort-nightly club contributed generously, as well as numberless individuals. So it can be truthfully said Granville was among the first in this work.

Newark Business Firms, whose gifts have been previously published in the newspapers: E. E. Hess, grocer; Hugh Ellis, grocer; Hulshizer Flour Mill; P. M. Schimpf, grocer; George Maybold; Tenney & Morgan, who donated 62 cloth sacks for shipping wheat; J. J. Carroll; W. H. Mazey & Co.; Meyer & Lindorf; Wm. Christian & Sons; Ros Emerson, and A. Schiff.

Organizations in Newark donating food stuff, the amount previously published—Daughters of Trinity, Trinity Episcopal church; Ladies' Auxiliary, Knights of St. John; Salem Ladies Aid society; Women's Home Mission society; First M. E. church; Altar and Rosary society, Church of the Blessed Sacrament; Twentieth Century club; Swastika club; Sewing club of Young Mothers; Eastern Stars.

Cash donations in Newark from organizations are as follows: Altar and Rosary society, St. Francis de Sales church, $25; What-so-ever Circle of The King's Daughters, $5; Sylvia Bible class, Second Presbyterian church, $15; Women's Auxiliary Trinity Episcopal church, $25; Auxiliary class, First Presbyterian church, $5; Neal Avenue M. E. church, $14; First Presbyterian church, $10.60; Central Church of Christ, $7.00; The Public and Parochial schools, $91.60; The Newark Trust Co., $50.

St. Paul's English Lutheran church gave groceries and the First Congregational church 800 lbs. of flour. Besides this over 200 individuals whose names are not printed contributed money and foodstuffs. To them, also, the commission extends its thanks.

The following firms aided the commission in various ways and to them it acknowledges with gratitude its indebtedness: M. W. Long and Phil Vogelmeier for transfer wagons; Singer Sewing Machine Co., use of machines; H. M. Davidson, use of room and gas; Kemper Scott, use of tables; Stewart Bros. & Alward, use of table and chairs.

And to the following for reduction in their bills, thanks are due: Kresge's, J. C. Nies and John Garbo.

To Messrs. F. L. Johnson, W. C. Wells, R. M. Davidson and H. S. Fleck the ladies are most grateful for willing and able assistance throughout the weeks during which the relief work was carried on. Of the ladies also who had charge at headquarters the president and chairman of the receiving committee express their appreciation. There is nothing more to be said except perhaps to quote the words of Tiny Tim:

"God bless us every one."

COMMANDERS OF ALLIED FLEETS TO USE GREAT CARE

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)

Milan, Via Paris, March 15.—Prudence will govern the efforts of the admirals of the allied fleet to force a passage of the Dardanelles, according to a special correspondent of the Corriere della Sera, who gives the captain of the French hospital ship Canada as authority for the statement. At least another month, he says, will be spent in efforts to silence the Turkish fortifications, especially those guarding the narrows at Chanak Kalesi.

The operations against Smyrna, the correspondent declares, had a double object. The first is said to have been to prevent the transfer of the 13th Turkish army corps which was preparing to leave for the Dardanelles and the second to cut the communications of the army which was sent against Egypt.

Newark Woman Cured of Kidney Trouble

Tells Fellow Townsfolk How Wonderful Remedy Was Accomplished.

Mrs. J. B. Layman, of 427 West Church street, Newark, O., says:

"I suffered terribly from a severe case of kidney trouble. I was told that nothing would relieve me but an operation. My urine was scalding and I suffered terribly with gravel. My back also gave me a great deal of pain and I was in a very bad condition. For this trouble I started taking Lloyd's Kidney and Rheumatism Tablets, the new scientific prescription, and from the first box I began to feel better. They relieved me from a very distressing disease and I am only too glad to recommend them to anyone suffering with this trouble."

The Hazards of Helen.

Benton railroad detective, is assigned to run down the crooks who have been breaking into freight cars near Hobart. Helen Holmes, the telegraph operator at Hobart, supplies Benton with his first clue. Later in the day, the two see Rand and his band of river pirates rifling a box car.

While Benton holds the crooks up, Helen disables the motor of their launch. A moment's carelessness causes Benton to be overpowered by the river pirates. The desperadoes fasten him to the side ladder of the freight car with his own handcuffs.

Helen discovers the detective's frightful peril just as the train starts. Making a flying leap, the brave girl boards the train and succeeds in rescuing Benton. As the result of her work, Rand is later captured.

The leader of the river pirates is tried and sentenced to prison. The members of his gang make a desperate effort to rescue him by raising the drawbridge which the train on which he and Benton are traveling, must cross.

Helen, however, frustrates this plot although it almost costs her life. The climax of this production "The Open Drawbridge" shows how this happens. See it at the Grand next Saturday.

Holland's government will take charge of the distribution of all grains and meal so as effectively to control the price of bread.

It is expected that 15,000 boats will pass through the Cape Cod Canal yearly.

DON'T FUSS WITH MUSTARD PLASTERS!

Musterole Works Easier, Quicker and Without the Blister

There's no sense in mixing up a mess of mustard, flour and water when you can so easily relieve pain, soreness or stiffness with a little clean, white MUSTEROLE.

MUSTEROLE is made of pure oil of mustard and other helpful ingredients, combined in the form of a pleasant white ointment. It takes the place of the out-of-date mustard plaster, and will not blister!

MUSTEROLE gives prompt relief from Sore Throat, Bronchitis, Tonsillitis, Croup, Stiff Neck, Asthma, Neuralgia, Headache, Congestion, Pleurisy, Rheumatism, Lumbago, Pains and Aches of the Back or Joints, Sprains, Sore Muscles, Bruises, Chilblains, Frosted Feet, Colds of the Chest (it often prevents Pneumonia).

At your druggist's, in 25c and 50c jars, and a special large hospital size for $2.50. Be sure you get the genuine MUSTEROLE. Refuse imitations—get what you ask for. The Musterole Company, Cleveland, Ohio.

Hereafter the basis of adjustment will be:

In Ford sizes, plain tread, 6,000 miles; Kant Slip, 7,500 miles. All other sizes, plain tread, 5,000 miles; Kant Slip tread, 6,000 miles.

The word "adjust" is merely figurative, because in 1914 the total adjustment in Kelly-Springfield Tires for the whole United States was less than 1%.

You get this unequalled service in uninterrupted mileage—not adjustment.

Before buying some other tire at a lower price analyze the basis of adjustment offered by the other maker—see what you really do get for less money.

FISTIANA

HELD HIGH CARNIVAL IN PHILADELPHIA, FIVE BOUTS BEING STAGED.

Two Champions in Six-Round Go, and Other Stars Appear at Rival Clubs.

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)
Philadelphia, March 18.—Philadelphia was the scene last night of one of the greatest fistic carnivals ever staged in this city. Five six-round bouts of more than ordinary interest were held by managers of two rival clubs, at one of which were brought together Johnny Kilbane, the featherweight champion, and Kid Williams, the bantamweight title-holder. Kilbane, who had trained down to 122 pounds, the required weight for the bout, outfought the bantamweight all the way.

At the other club, the chief attractions were Charlie White, the Chicago lightweight, and Sam Robideau of this city; Young Ahearn, middleweight champion of England, and Jimmy Clabby of Hammond, Ind., aspirant for that title; Jack McCarron of Allentown, Pa., and Soldier Bartfield of New York, another pair of hard-hitting middleweights, and George Chaney of Baltimore, and Jimmy Fox, a California featherweight.

Johnny Kilbane, the featherweight champion, outfought Williams all the way in their six-round bout. Both men boxed Philadelphia rules. "Keep punching till ordered to break and then break clean; kidney-punch barred."

The two little champions feinted and sparred for an opening in the first two rounds, during which few blows were struck. Williams gave ground continually and both rounds were a succession of clinches in which the bantamweight title-holder made ineffectual leads for the body. Kilbane eluded most of Williams' leads throughout, and at the end of the second round rocked Williams' head with three right uppercuts in rapid succession.

After shaking hands at the opening of the final round both boxers rushed to a clinch. Kilbane held Williams off and then sent hard rights and lefts to the bantam's face.

Williams was forced to the ropes but came back strong. A few seconds before the bell Kilbane landed a hard right and left to the jaw, which jarred Williams considerably. Charlie White stopped Sam Robideau in the first round of a scheduled six-round bout.

It was a fast fight up to the time it was stopped by the Philadelphia's seconds.

Jack McCarron had the advantage over Soldier Bartfield of New York. It was one of the fastest bouts ever witnessed in this city.

Tommy Howell and Joe Borrell, both of Philadelphia, fought six rounds to a draw.

The contest between George Chaney and Jimmy Fox of California, was stopped in the fifth round. Fox, who substituted for Eddie Morgan, English lightweight, was completely outclassed.

Young Ahearn of England, won the popular decision over Jimmy Clabby of Hammond, in their six-round bout. With the exception of the first round, in which Clabby opened a gash over Ahearn's eye, the English champion excelled.

"CAIN'S QUESTION," WAS SUBJECT OF EVANGELIST IRWIN

"Cain's Question" was the subject of a heart-searching sermon on the subject of influence by Evangelist Irwin at the West Main Street Church of Christ last evening.

By numerous illustrations, drawn from nature and domestic life, the evangelist strikingly proved that we are our brother's keepers. Every word we speak, every deed we do, every thought which finds expression influences the world for good or ill.

The strongest influence in the world is that of the parents over the child. Not only is the child like the parents in feature and form, but also in habits and character.

"Mercy, Willie, what are you doing," exclaimed a mother, coming suddenly into the room and finding her little son cutting away his hair with the shears.

"Trying to make my head look like papa's," was the reply. His father was bald.

Drunkness and its awful consequences are frequently the result of parental influence and example, declares the evangelist, and cited a case of an old gentleman who came to a minister and requested that he intercede with the old gentleman's son and endeavor to induce him to quit drinking. The minister did so, but was scornfully advised to return the father and urge him to quit drinking. Amazed, the minister did so, and the old gentleman admitted that he could "drink or let it alone," but that with his son it was different.

Fig Indian Pudding.

One quart milk, three heaping table-spoonfuls cornmeal, one tablespoonful cornstarch, four eggs, one-half cupful sugar, one-half teaspoonful salt, one-half teaspoonful cinnamon, one table-spoonful butter, one cupful figs, chopped. Soak figs ten minutes in warm water before chopping; boil the milk and stir in it the meal and cornstarch, previously mixed with a little cold milk; cook ten minutes. Beat eggs, reserving the whites of two, with the sugar, salt and cinnamon; stir into milk; add butter and figs, dusted with flour. Beat the whites of two eggs with two table-spoonfuls of sugar and two of cream and stir lightly into the mixture. Bake slowly one hour. Serve with creamy sauce.

The Matter of a Dash.

A Russian military paper tells of a lieutenant who overheard a sergeant giving a recruit a short lecture upon his duties. "The military service," said the sergeant, "requires little prayer to God and a strict attention to the orders of a superior." Somewhat astonished at this singular definition of military duty, the officer ventured to ask the sergeant for his authority, whereupon the sergeant produced an ancient volume containing the following: "The military service requires little—prayer to God and strict attention to the orders of a superior."

CORNS LIFT OUT

Dr. Hunt's New Penetration Method Loosens Them Root and All. FULL SIZE BOX 10c.

No corn ever went so easily, quickly or surely as by Dr. Hunt's new way—the penetration principle of permanently curing corns. Dr. Hunt has devoted a life of study to this one subject. The final result is this entirely different method—a method by which corns GO forever in two short days. Dr. Hunt's New Corn Cure comes in a simple plaster form. Six plasters in a box. Cut plaster size of corn and apply it. Doesn't "bulk" like clumsy pads. Contains no caustic to smart or cause blood-poisoning. No paring necessary. Wear any shoes. Ease comes the moment you apply this new remedy. You walk in comfort. You forget your feet. In two days corn lifts out. Nothing like Dr. Hunt's New Corn Cure has been known before. It is an entirely new principle. Millions of packages have already been sold. Cures any corn. They must go. And the price is only ten cents a box. Guaranteed or money back. That's very little to pay for foot comfort. Sold by druggists and shoe dealers everywhere. Cure your corns once and for all, this new way. If any difficulty in securing, send 10 cents in stamps for a box, to American Chemical Company, Sidney, Ohio.

"Chimes of Normandy," Given by Local Talent, Proved Of Surprising Excellence

"The Chimes of Normandy" given under the auspices of the Mendelssohn choral society at the Auditorium last evening drew a capacity audience, every seat being occupied and many being compelled to stand.

The production of this opera under the personal direction of Mr. E. P. Gruber has probably done more in a musical way for Newark than any thing of a similar nature in a number of years. It has demonstrated that there is much talent in this city, talent that has never had the opportunity of being brought before the public. It has stimulated an interest in musical circles and assisted in reviving that interest in tuneless operas and operettas that had almost become obsolete, for it is said that the choral society will possibly stage another production in the near future.

The cast of characters of last evening's opera was admirably arranged, all being in most capable hands. The chorus was undoubtedly the finest ever heard on the Auditorium stage, either by professionals or amateurs and showed careful training and study on the part of each member. The volume which they attained was remarkable while the harmony was almost perfect. It was a treat to hear the chorus in their different numbers and their pretty vari-colored costumes blended to a nicety with the scenes and surroundings of the play. Director Gruber is deserving of the highest encomiums for the acme of perfection attained by the singers. Every voice counted and every singer did his or her best to assist in making the opera a success.

The cast of characters brought forth some remarkable talent that surprised even their most intimate friends. It carried a twang of professionalism and showed the results which can be attained by careful and painstaking practicing and attendance upon rehearsals. The direction of the stage works was done by Ralph Davis, who has had quite a little experience in the profession having traveled over the large vaudeville circuits of the country for several years. He developed splendid stage presence in each of the principals, in fact, it would have been hard for a stranger to distinguish them from professionals for their work showed polish from the rise of the curtain until its fall. Following was the cast of characters:

Serpente, the good for nothing—Miss Blanche Trost.
Germania, the last Marchioness—Miss Riegger.
Village Maidens: Gertrude, Miss Grace Dennison; Jeanne, Mrs. Chas. Stem; Manette, Miss Edna Streit; Suzanne, Miss Marie Bourner.
Henri Marquis of Cornville—Mr. Carl Myers.
Jean Grenicheux, a fisherman—Mr. J. Bacik.
Gaspard, a miser—John Garrity.
The Bailiff—Ralph Davis.
Registrar—John Birmingham.
Assessor—Walter Rauck.
Notary—G. W. Rogers.
Miss Blanche Trost, as "Serpente, the good-for-nothing, was a charming little soubrette, who captivated her audience upon her initial entrance. Petite and chic she won the hearts of all, and her rendition of her solo numbers won her many encores. In the last act where she assumed the title of the marchioness she changes from the care-free little good-for-nothing to the grand dame. Dressed in rich robes and looking every bit the part she carried it out to a nicety.

Miss Anna Riegger, as "Germania," and afterwards the true marchioness, had a number of solos that called for exceptional ability in their rendition, but she proved equal to the occasion and carried her audience away with her charming simplicity and unaffectedness. She was handsome in her peasant dress, and in her love scenes with "Henri," she displayed true artistic genius, and her rich soprano voice blended with the tenor in their duets gave her auditors treat after treat. Miss Riegger could take her place in the front rank of any professional company.

Mr. Carl Myers sang and acted the part of "Henri Marquis of Cornville." My Myers had appeared before the public on several previous occasions and the interpretation which he placed upon the character of Planguette's charming opera showed that that training had stood him in good stead for he did the part assigned to him to a nicety. He made an ideal "Henri," and captivated the audience.

Mr. J. Bacik, as "Jean Grenicheux," a fisherman, was a great surprise to those who have never had the pleasure of hearing him before. He has a rich tenor voice, which has really excellent qualities. It was heard to advantage in the solo work which fell to his part, and especially was this true in the duets in which the blending was most pleasing in the general effort. Mr. Bacik has been a student of music for some time, and while the opera parts are not new to him, yet he has never sung them in public.

Mr. John Garrity, as "Gaspard, the miser, made an excellent impression with everyone. It is a most difficult part, not only in the musical score but also in the acting of the most difficult role. Mr. Garrity's deep bass voice was heard to advantage, but it was in the second act where he depicted the old miser counting his gold, his discovery, and then his loss of reason that Mr. Garrity showed true ability. He was, indeed, clever and interpreted the part in a splendid manner.

Mr. Ralph Davis, as the "Bailiff," did not take long to convince the audience that he was perfectly at home on the stage. His every move showed the professional and his solo was admirably rendered. Mr. Davis was of great assistance in the staging of the opera and is entitled to a great deal of the credit for its success.

Mr. John Birmingham, as the "Registrar"; Mr. Walter Rauck, as the "Assessor"; Mr. G. W. Rogers, as the "Notary," carried out their parts nicely and are deserving of much praise.

The members of the men's chorus were: Louis Kureth, Herman Gundlach, George Calhoun, John Davis, Ernest Lieber, Jack Cohn, Richard Hoiler, George Winters, Carl Fox, Ray Bailey, Lewis Peoples, F. E. Fisher, Willie Trost, Anton Wulher, Arthur Cass, James Smith, Joseph Ingram, F. M. Schumpf and John Reigger.

Those composing the ladies' chorus were: Frances Bausch, Frances Oberfeld, Mrs. James Gallaher, Cecelia Adams, Kenzel Roeser, Eva Winters, Allene Dantorth, Irene Winters, Mary Gilmore, Helen Rogers, Mary Johns, Marguerite Stare, Helen Talbot, Sarah O'Shaughnessy, Elizabeth Adams, Helen Stassel, Jeanette Talbot, Hattie Reinhold, Claire Kureth, Anna Callen, Regina Dwyer, Justina Smith, Julia McCarty, Anna Stare, Margaret Bradley and Kathryn Schopen.

The accompanist was Miss Bernice Floyd, who showed splendid talent, and she assisted materially in making all the song numbers a success. The orchestra was one of the pleasing features of the evening and its admirable work was commented on by all. It consisted of Pauline Phelan, Carl Ankele and George Cusinno, first violin; John Criticos and Lawrence Klein, second violins; Dr. Rollin Sook, viola; Alva Hayes, cello; James Murphy and E. A. Barber, double bass; Nicholas Snyder, flute; C. G. Sutton, clarinet; Richard Fatig, cornet; Ray Shirer, trombone; Nelson Kibler, French horn; Fred Abbott, tympan.

The proceeds of the entertainment will be turned over by the choral society to the building committee of the proposed new parochial school building, which it is estimated will cost approximately $60,000.

Clover Gainsboroughs.

The father of Thomas Gainsborough, the great Suffolk painter, added as much to the wealth of Sudbury as the son increased its fame. Says the London Tatler, for the father introduced more than one new industry into the town from Coventry. The Gainsboroughs were indeed a remarkable family. One brother of the painter, known as "Scheming Jack," was clever enough to make himself a pair of copper wings, but not clever enough to fly with them; to make a cradle which rocked itself and a cuckoo which sang all the year round. Thomas himself at an early age startled his father by forging his signature to a message addressed to the local schoolmaster, "Give Tom a holiday," a message which provoked the parental prophecy, "Tom will be hanged one day." Tom was hanged in the Royal academy.

Not a Square Deal.

Miss Mason was explaining to her Sunday school class the lesson for the day, the subject being the tares and the wheat.

"Now, remember, children, the tares represent the bad people and the wheat the good ones."

"Why, Miss Mason?" exclaimed a rosy cheeked boy, who had been listening through the lesson with deep interest. "Did you say the tares are the bad folks and the wheat the good ones?"

"Yes, James," replied the teacher, pleased at the lad's interest.

"Well, that's funny, I think," remarked the matter of fact child. "It's the wheat that gets thrashed; the tares don't."—Country Gentleman.

Are You Crazy?

"How do you know that you are not crazy?" was asked the accused in a lunacy investigation. A prize might well be offered for a convincing answer to the question from one's personal knowledge. Lombroso and other eminent alienists have held that there is a taint of insanity upon some subject in every human mind; that no mind is absolutely and correctly balanced. No man sane upon several subjects will admit that he is crazy at all. How, as a matter of fact, does any man know, of his own knowledge, that he is not insane?—Exchange.

WHY SO WEAK?

Kidney Troubles May be Sapping Your Life Away. Newark People Have Learned This Fact.

When a healthy man or woman begins to run down without apparent cause, becomes weak, languid, depressed, suffers backache, headache, dizzy spells and urinary disorders, weak kidneys may be the cause. The slightest symptom of kidney trouble is too serious to neglect. Doan's Kidney Pills have earned their fame by their effectiveness in strengthening the kidneys and keeping them well. Here is Newark testimony to prove their worth.

Mrs. C. L. Starr, 89 Hancock street, Newark, says: "For years I was run down from kidney and bladder trouble. I was weak and hard backaches and headaches made me feel miserable. I used Doan's Kidney Pills and they did me a lot of good. They gave me strength and energy and made it possible for me to rest well. Every spring and fall I take a box of Doan's Kidney Pills, as a tonic and strengthener and they keep my kidneys in good shape."

Price 50c. at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mrs. Starr had. Foster-Milburn Co., Props., Buffalo, N. Y.

BOARD MEETING.

The board of education held a short session Tuesday evening and after allowing a number of bills, heard a proposition for installing a vacuum cleaner in the Woodside building. A Mr. Mitchell offered to install one for $251. The matter will be investigated and if found satisfactory a special meeting will be called for some day next week to act on the matter.

Millionaire's Son Out, One Into Railroad

NICHOLAS F. BRADY

Below

The recent meeting of the stockholders of the Missouri Pacific Railroad in St. Louis marked a change in American railroad which may have a wide influence. It saw the entrance into steam railroading of Nicholas F. Brady, who is believed to control the enormous fortunes of his late father, Anthony F. Brady, who was estimated when he died last year to be worth between $75,000,000 and $100,000,000.

George Jay Gould, eldest son of Jay Gould, had inherited the property, or the controlling interest from his father. For years he has managed it unsuccessfully. When he tried to make it a link with the Wabash and the Western Maryland to Baltimore, thus establishing a new transcontinental railroad, the great interest in control of the Pennsylvania, the New York Central and other systems went after him. They beat him, and then the Gould system began to crumble. At last the Missouri Pacific has been taken from the family, under the leadership of Kuhn, Loeb & Company, the great New York bankers.

Little is known of young Mr. Brady. He is not under 40 years of age. His father confined his operations to municipal public utilities, chiefly gas and street railroad companies. He was the greatest power in the Brooklyn Rapid Transit Company, the elevated railroad system there. But the entrance of the young man into steam railroading convinced many bankers that the Brady fortune is in actual control of the Missouri Pacific. It had been the custom of the Brady interests never to buy heavily into a corporation, unless they bought sufficient stock to control it.

was said at the end they agree to a number of amendments to the bill, which would make it less objectionable to wet interests.

The house committee on banking today decided to report out with recommendation for passage the Beitel bill, making it a felony for persons to overdraw their checking accounts with intent to defraud, and the Collins bill, defining bank deposits as "credits," so that they may not be taxable when applied on debts.

The committee killed the Black bill, which would have made trust companies or other trustees for bonds responsible for the payment of all premiums and the final redemption of the bonds. Members of the committee declared enactment of the measure would have ruined all trust companies.

Indications today were that the state oil inspection department would continue its present suspension for at least three months yet, because house Democrats at a caucus agreed not to vote for the emergency clause on the Moore bill, which creates a new rate of inspection fees. The bill was first killed and later, after consideration, passed by the house last evening, but vote on the emergency clause was deferred until today.

Representative Kramer, minority floor leader, said today only a few Democrats expected to vote for the emergency clause, and that prospects were it would not receive the necessary two-thirds vote for passage. J. M. Carr of Barboursville, is the newly-appointed head of the department. The department suspended operation last week, after the supreme court declared unconstitutional the law under which it was working.

Divorces will be harder to secure if the legislature enacts the Young bill, which was reported out today by the house codes committee without recommendation. The bill provides that the court must appoint an officer of the court to act as private investigator of all divorce cases and report to the court. Only common pleas courts would have jurisdiction in divorce cases, according to the bill.

It also seeks to prevent foreigners from getting divorces by declaring the address of the wife left in his native country is unknown. The court must notify the consul from the country of the applicant for divorce, the bill prescribes.

Senator Wickline, of Summit county said today he expects to introduce this week his long-expected election reform bill. It will propose to reduce from four to two members of county boards of election in all counties excepting the five most populous. Cuyahoga, Hamilton, Lucas and Montgomery, and from six to four the number of election officials in every precinct.

Annual registration will be supplanted by a single registration, to be renewed by a voter when he moves. Failure to vote at two consecutive general elections would mean automatic dropping of a voter's name from the registration records and he would have to register again. Boards of health would be compelled to certify cases of a voter's death to the election board.

Assent voting will be provided for in a bill to be introduced soon by Senator Wise, of Stark.

No more novel method of gold "mining" has ever come to light than that pursued at a deserted mining camp near Wickes, Mont. It is the remains of what was once a thriving village at the Gregory mine, and the sand used in plastering the houses came from ponds rich in gold. Now the old cottages are being torn down and the plaster carefully smelted.

Commander of Fleet Now Taking Dardanelles.

Admiral S. H. Carden, British commander of the fleet which has been off the Dardanelles since the war began, has suddenly come into fame by his successful bombardment of the forts of the Dardanelles. He was placed in command of the allied fleets because of the allied officer there. Just as soon as the great new superdreadnought of the British navy, the Queen Elizabeth, reached the scene with her fifteen-inch guns, which shoot more than twelve miles, the attempt to take the Dardanelles was begun in earnest.

The great vessel was sent against the forts at the mouth and after an attack of three days five of them were silenced. Trailing along with the Queen Elizabeth, the remainder of the British and French fleet went on up the straits. Fort after fort, whose guns fell short of the range of those of the Queen Elizabeth, was smashed by her new weapons.

Now the work of taking all the forts in the straits clear to the Bosphorus and Constantinople is a mere matter of hard work, British naval experts say. In less than three weeks, according to their prediction, Constantinople will have fallen. Of course, Admiral Carden will get the major part of the credit for doing what would have been impossible without immense modern guns.

HYSTERIC

PRODUCED UPON MRS. ANGLE BY SIGHT OF BLOOD, FATHER'S TESTIMONY

Defense Rested in Bridgeport Manslaughter Case After His Cross-Examination.

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)

Bridgeport, Conn., March 15.—Leonard Blondel father of Mrs. Helen M. Angle, who is on trial for manslaughter in connection with the death of Waldo R. Ballou, in Stamford, resumed the witness stand today. He repeated his statement of yesterday that his daughter was affected to hysteria by the sight of blood.

Mr. Blondel told of going to the Rippowan building, where the tragedy occurred. He observed spots of blood on the stairway and saw a pool of blood on the landing at the foot of Mrs. Angle's stairs. It appeared as if something had been drawn through it.

The witness declared there were no signs of a struggle having taken place in the apartment. He also told of seeing a rubbish box on the piazza and of examining its contents. He was positive no spectacles were there. It had been testified by witnesses for the state that Ballou's spectacles were found there.

The witness said his daughter's health had begun to fail about two years ago. She formerly helped him in his office work, but as his own health was poor and she could not help him very much, he decided to sell out his business.

According to Blondel he was friendly with Ballou, but not intimate. He knew that Ballou and his daughter were going together. Regarding the diamond ring given to Mrs. Angle by Ballou, Blondel said Ballou presented it, after she had recovered from an operation for appendicitis. His daughter had consulted him about accepting the ring, and he told her if she wanted to keep it, he had no objection.

Blondel's cross-examination was brief and at 11:13 a. m. the defense rested.

In rebuttal the state called W. G. Houghton, a baker, of Stamford, who had known Ballou for years. "Did you ever see Mr. Ballou under the influence of liquor?" asked the state's attorney. An objection by the defense was sustained on the ground that a particular act could not be proved by reputation.

Dr. Samuel Pearson, who examined Ballou at the hospital on the night of the tragedy, testified that he detected no odor of alcohol on the injured man's breath. Four other witnesses who assisted Ballou when he was found dying on the sidewalk in front of the Rippowan building offered similar testimony.

The state then rested and the arguments of counsel began.

(Special to the Advocate.)

The mere announcement that the Presbyterian women are to serve a supper, is sufficient always to crowd their rooms, not only with their own people, but with representatives from all the other churches and their entertainment last evening proved to be one of the most successful yet given. St. Patrick's Day was observed to the minutest detail of the artistic decorations, including even the ladies' costumes. The long tables were beautiful in decorations of Shamrock and green shaded candles, under festoons of green. Tiny favors of trefoil were carried away by each guest, from the bountiful board. Over two hundred people patronized the self-serve supper, and remained afterward for the delightful musical program presented by about ten of the young people who

WITH SEVERAL THOUSAND MEN FEATURE OF METHODISTS' MEETING

Marched Through Principal Streets of Columbus to Evidence Organization's Strength.

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)

Columbus, March 15.—A street parade today, with several thousand men in line was one of the features of the convention of Ohio Methodists held here this week. Headed by leaders of Methodists, the parade marched through the streets of the city as evidence of the strength of organized Christianity.

Chief among the addresses of the day was that of John R. Mott of New York, on "The Bearing of War on Christian Missions." W. E. Doughty of New York also spoke his subject being "Prayer Indispensable to World Winners." Those addresses with others by A. E. Cory, of Cincinnati, and Thomas Nicholson, of New York, completed the program for the morning session.

Former Vice President Charles W. Fairbanks is expected to be the principal speaker at tomorrow's session with a talk on "Christianizing the National Life."

TO HAVE PRETTY HAIR

If your hair is not as soft, and pretty, or as fresh and full as that of some friend, do as she does—give it daily attention, just the same care as you would give a plant to make it healthy and beautiful. Luxuriant hair—soft, fluffy, thick and lustrous—is really a matter of care. If it is too thin, stimulate the hair roots and bring out the new hairs. If it is too dry and brittle soften it up—lubricate it. If you have dandruff it's because the scalp is too dry and flakes off. Freshen up the scalp and the dandruff disappears.

An inexpensive tonic, called Parisian Sage, which you can get from any drug counter or from T. J. Evans is just what you need—it softens the scalp, nourishes and invigorates the hair roots, immediately removes all dandruff and makes the hair fluffy, lustrous and abundant. One application will stop itching head and cleanse the hair of dust and excess oil. Parisian Sage takes away the dryness and brittleness, makes the hair seem twice as abundant and beautifies it until it is soft and lustrous.

By the use of this helpful tonic any woman can easily make her hair beautiful, and pretty hair surely increases charm and beauty.

OPEN NOSTRILS! END A COLD OR CATARRH

How To Get Relief When Head and Nose are Stuffed Up.

Count fifty! Your cold in head or catarrh disappears. Your clogged nostrils will open, the air passages of your head will clear and you can breathe freely. No more snuffling, hawking, mucous discharge, dryness or headache; no struggling for breath at night.

Get a small bottle of Ely's Cream Balm from your druggist and apply a little of this fragrant antiseptic cream in your nostrils. It penetrates through every air passage of the head, soothing and healing the swollen or inflamed mucous membrane, giving you instant relief. Head colds and catarrh yield like magic. Don't stay stuffed-up and miserable. Relief is sure.

COMB SAGE TEA INTO GRAY HAIR

Ladies! Try this! Darkens beautifully and nobody can tell—Brings back its gloss and thickness.

Common garden sage brewed into a heavy tea, with sulphur and alcohol added will turn gray, streaked and faded hair beautifully dark and luxuriant; remove every bit of dandruff, stop scalp itching and falling hair. Mixins the Sage Tea and Sulphur recipe at home, though, is troublesome. An easier way is to get the ready-to-use tonic, costing about 50 cents a large bottle, at drug stores, known as Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Hair Remedy, thus avoiding a lot of fuss.

While wispy, gray faded hair is not sinful, we all desire to retain our youthful appearance and attractiveness. By darkening your hair with Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur, no one can tell, because it does it so naturally, so evenly. You just dampen a sponge or soft brush with it and draw this through your hair, taking one small strand at a time; by morning all gray hairs have disappeared. After another application or two your hair becomes beautifully dark, glossy, soft and luxuriant and you appear years younger. Agents, Hall's drug store.

New York, March 15.—The American Baptist foreign mission society announced today that it had accepted the resignations of the two most recent additions to its staff of secretaries, the Rev. Dr. Emory W. Hunt, former president of Denison University, Granville, Ohio, and the Rev. Arthur C. Baldwin, former pastor of the First Baptist church of Fall River, Mass.

Messrs. Hunt and Baldwin, it was announced, had voluntarily and without suggestion, tendered their resignations because of the critical financial situation which the society faced. The resignations have been held in abeyance since January as the society was unwilling to lose their services, the announcement continues and were reluctantly accepted when the financial situation became so acute that it became necessary to accept them.

Dr. Hunt was general secretary of the society and Mr. Baldwin was foreign secretary. Referring to the gravity of its financial crisis, the society's statement says:

"The possibility that it might be necessary for financial reasons not only to send out no new missionaries the coming year, but even to retain at home most of those now in this country on furlough and to reduce appropriations for the maintenance of the work of those on the foreign fields, has given both the members of the board of managers and officers of the society and denomination at large the gravest concern."

NEWS OF INTEREST TO GRANVILLE AND NEWARK PEOPLE.

(Special to The Advocate)

Granville, O., March 15.—The news of the resignation of Dr. E. W. Hunt and Rev. Arthur C. Baldwin, is of great interest to Granville and Newark people, because of the warm relations existing between the two members of the secretarial staff on the general board of Missions, with this community.

Early in January, when the full gravity of the situation first became clear, General Secretary E. W. Hunt and Foreign Secretary Arthur C. Baldwin presented a letter to the committee on ways and means, in which, referring to the fact that they were the latest additions to the secretarial staff, they offered in a spirit of most generous self-sacrifice and loyalty to the work of the denomination to place their resignations at the disposal of the board.

At the quarterly meeting of the board of managers held in Boston, March 10 and 11, with great reluctance and regret voted that it was, in their judgment, necessary to avail themselves of the generous offer of Doctor Hunt and Mr. Baldwin to present their resignations.

Each year the import of opium from India into China is reduced by 5,100 chests.
